'Board Uninformed' - Stiff

By LEWARD HOOD

Amarillo City Manager John Stiff said Tuesday the board of governors of the Potter-Randall County Metro Intelligence Unit "should be better informed" as to the special law enforcement group's activities.

"In the past, they had no idea what's going on—that's not right," Stiff said—speaking of the Randall and Potter County Sheriffs and the Police Chiefs from Canyon and Amarillo, and West Texas State University Security Chief.

His remarks came during a meeting of Randall and Potter County Commissioners and Amarillo City Commissioners, held Tuesday at 8 a.m. at the Quality Motel, Amarillo.

Stiff also promised, "In the next year you're going to see more productivity out of the Unit."

He also advised Randall commissioners that requests for funding are being studied, and the Metro Unit operations will continue "as-is" with no increases in the staff during the coming year.

Stiff called for "more effective participation by the government agencies of both Amarillo and Canyon. He said he thought the "flow of drugs has been reduced substantially" since the Metro Unit was formed. "And the juries have done a good job (returning convictions on drug offenses).

The Tuesday session was held to emphasize the growing importance of cooperation in law enforcement between various agencies of both Potter and Randall counties, Stiff said.

It was pointed out during the meeting that members of the Canyon City Commission were to receive invitations to the session, but that due to unintentional oversight, those invitations were not made by Amarillo organizers.

Jacobs Says Growth Inevitable For Schools

Canyon School Superintendent Jerry Jacobs said Monday he feels the Canyon School District could grow 200 or 300 students a year for three or four years in a row in the near future.

"I think the school might pick up 100 or 150 students next year," Jacobs projected. "I hate to see our school system grow a whole lot, frankly. I think the growth of 30, 40 or 50 students a year like we are now experiencing is healthy, but to grow 200 or 300 students three or four years in a row...I hate to see, but I think it is inevitable," Jacobs told board members.

While reviewing the student enrollment summary Jacobs said, "The building trend in Amarillo has been to build in the southwest part of town. If the trend continues, in two or three years there will be only one place they can continue to build and that is in our school district."

"The likelihood of pretty drastic changes in student enrollment could happen at anytime," Jacobs cautioned.

Jacobs told trustees they needed to allocate the money in building trades budget to build one or two portable classrooms. "They (portable classrooms) have a very valid purpose—they are mobile and can accommodate growth on various campuses."

The Board voted to offer the first Methodist Church $10,000 in cash for one-half block of land on 11th Ave. across the street from the high school.

Dudley Moore, president of the school board, said he has been given an appraisal of $35 a front foot on the property by Bill Davis and A. L. Crossland, two Canyon realtors. There is almost 300 front foot on the land, Moore explained.

In speaking for the motion, board member Tom Keeling said, "With the scarcity of land I think it (the land) is worth $35 a front foot. In our past meetings we have talked about building the administration offices over there some time in the future."

In other business the board discussed special projects that could be included in the budget including remodeling the front of the building trades classroom on 15th street and the purchase of approximately 20 acres of land for an ag farm.

"I would like to see us get 20 acres, but I don't think we should (See SCHOOL, Page 7)

Ralph Yarborough said Monday he has not been sufficiently impressed in what the Texas legislature has done in the past 25 years to turn federal revenue sharing money over to

Texas in a lump sum.

Yarborough, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, said at a meeting in the Student Union Building at West Texas State University, "I have more confidence in how we (the U. S. Senate) distribute the money than how Barnes and Mutscher distribute it."

The candidate was discussing President Nixon's plan for revenue sharing with the states by giving the federal money to the states in a lump sum and letting the states decide on how to use the money.

Yarborough said when he was in the Senate, the money was given to Texas in categories after testimony on every bill from leaders in Texas.

"I have more faith in the judgment of Congress than I do in the way the Texas legislature has been operating recently," Yarborough said.

When asked to clarify his remarks about the Texas legislature Yarborough denied that he was criticizing the Texas legislators. The former Senator then said he was tired of the vicious editorials printed about him in The Canyon News.

Yarborough said he wished the paper would print the facts rather than its conclusions. "Just print what I say," he demanded. Yarborough did not refer to a specific story or incident.

Yarborough also slammed the Nixon administration's campaign (See RALPH, Page 7)

An Amarillo man perished in this grinding. Both vehicles spun off the road into a ditch flaming car-truck collision which occurred following impact, described by Texas Highway Patrolmen as "terrific."

Homicide Charge Filed

A charge of homicide by vehicle was filed Monday in Randall County Court against a 21-year-old Amarillo truck driver in connection with last Saturday's spectacular car-truck collision at the intersection of Farm Roads 2219 and 250.

Charged was Melvin Glenn DeBord, Amarillo.

County Judge Woody Pond set bond of $1,000 for DeBord, who was arrested at 11:30 a.m. Monday and booked into Randall County jail. He was released on a personal recognizance bond at approximately 11:50 p.m., arrest records show.

DeBord was driver of the southbound semi-tractor-trailer gravel truck which collided with an eastbound auto driven on 2219 by Richard Eugene Gunn, 21, also of Amarillo. The gravel truck was entering the intersection from FM 2590, reported Texas Highway Patrolman Ronald Boyter, who investigated the accident.

Justice of the Peace W. W. Hancock pronounced Gunn dead at the scene at about 4:10 p.m.

Boyter said Gunn was "probably killed on impact" as the two vehicles collided, as the auto burst into flames.

"It was burning so strong there was nothing we could do," Boyter said. He said he arrived at the scene about five minutes after the collision.

Canyon volunteer firefighters had to cut off the top of the wrecked auto to get Gunn's body out, the patrolman said. He added that Gunn, an employee of Randall County Feedyards, had punched off the job there at 3:32 p.m.

For a short time after collision, (See CHARGES, Page 7)

Canyon Student Recognized By Youth Science Congress

March.

This young scientist is the first student in the history of CHS to be selected for special recognition by the Texas-Oklahoma Region of Youth Science Congresses.

As a result of his selection, he was among some 20 high school science enthusiasts who were treated last week to tours of Houston's NASA space command mission rooms and facilities.

The Youth Science Congresses, cosponsored by NASA and the National Science Teachers Association, conducts recognition programs for students in 12 regions over the United States.

The regional congress held meetings Wednesday through last Saturday at Houston.

The son of Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Oppe of 2408 12th Ave., young Tom's achievement with the YSC was the direct result of the paper written at CHS; the paper was entitled, "Gravitation within A Hollow Sphere."

Said his teacher, Mrs. Charles Brasher: "We're extremely proud of him. And the YSC evaluation committee was highly complimentary of him."

Mrs. Brasher said the YSC program is an excellent one.

She also said her student's paper showed high originality. In his piece on gravitation, she explained, he demonstrated literally how "a body inside a

Carol Crain Retains Lead

Carol Crain still holds a slight edge in the Canyon News subscription contest followed closely by Mary Neal Henry of Happy.

Mary Jo Griffin of Sherman Acres is in third place just behind Mrs. Henry, and Renee Morgan holds a close fourth with Susan Dolle of Umbarger now holding fifth place.

Lorraine Bonds is just behind in sixth place. Other contestants are Vicki Hooker, Ernestine Harp, Sherrie Cates, Tootie Bybee and Pauline Hefley.

City Commission

Canyon's City Commission will meet in regular session at 7 p.m. Thursday to hold public hearing on the 1972 paving assessment program.

Other action is expected to involve hearing of a special presentation on the city ordinance concerning self-service gasoline stations, and possible city participation in a paving project on 17th St.

Financial Advisor Bob Davis is expected to meet with commissioners to study the legal aspects of refunding of water-sewer bonds, George Loudder, city manager said.

Absentee Voting

An absentee voting booth will be set up from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. each day in the Student Union Building on the campus of West Texas State University for student voting, according to County Clerk LeRoy Hutton.

Absentee voting for the May 8th primary election opened Monday and as of Tuesday afternoon 11 persons had voted by personal appearance and six had mailed in ballots.

WTSU Cuts Staff; 11 Given Notice

Eleven members of the teaching faculty at West Texas State University have been notified their employment will be terminated as of May, 1973.

Dr. Ray A. Malzahn, vice-president for academic affairs, said the primary reason for the cut-back is the decline in enrollment and the low student-faculty ratio at WTSU.

With a low student-faculty ratio, the university is not able to reward merit in the faculty by providing adequate salaries, Dr. Malzahn reported.

The student faculty ratio at the present time is 18.9 to 1, said Dr. Malzahn. The ratio needs to be 25 to 1 if the university is able to generate enough money for things that need to be done, he said.

Dr. Malzahn noted the terminations were spread across the departments at West Texas. Those receiving termination notices are all non-tenure faculty members with the majority at the instructor level, he said.

All of the faculty members affected have been notified, Dr. Malzahn said.

As to the university's policy of hiring additional faculty members next year Dr. Malzahn said when the enrollment de-

Cattle Scabies Program

Farm Bureau Protests

The members of the Randall County Farm Bureau are protesting the Cattle Scabies Eradication Program.

The board of directors of the Farm Bureau have expressed their concern with the program in letters to Congressmen Graham Purcell and Bob Price, according to Bob McCasland.

McCasland, member of the board, said Tuesday the board voted unanimously to write the letters.

McCasland said he, Christler Crain and Ervin Davis were appointed as a committee to take some action to express the feelings of the board about the program.

The Farm Bureau protest follows an announcement made last week of stricter dipping requirements for cattle. The changes in the requirements are to begin June 1.

The letter states, "We understand that cattle scabies is a serious threat to the cattle industry; but, we also know that it is not injurious to the life of the cattle or to man as is anthrax or other such diseases."

"We feel a more practical approach to the problem should be taken. The measures being forced upon us are too harsh and more thought should be given to their consequences," the letter continues.

Randall County has had only minor occurrences of scabies and it has apparently been controlled through measures already taken, the letter states.

"Indiscriminate, mandatory dipping of all cattle prior to shipping would produce several consequences that we feel are more serious than the problem itself," according to Farm Bureau members.

The letter lists added expense to the consumer, added expense to the tax payer, unnecessary pollution of the environment, the health and well-being of the cattle, profiteering by individuals at the expense of the cattleman, and increased cost to the producer.

"The cure seems to be fast becoming worse than the problem," the letter stresses. The machinery for its operation is already set up and working. Our only recourse is to write you and hope that you can afford us some relief before the problem becomes more serious," the letter (See FARM, Page 7)

Just one person who finds a clean public campsite and leaves it dirty is overpopulation.

For Western Auto

25th Anniversary

In the spring of 1960, O. W. (Bud) Parker enjoyed a rare moment in history.

That was the year John F. Kennedy ran for President and Parker remembers it well.

"I was there," he said, talking of JFK's visit there with Former President Harry S. Truman, who at that time announced his endorsement of the young senator from Massachusetts.

Said Parker, "It was a moment of history that I watched being made. I got to sit in on that event (the press conference Truman called to announce Kennedy's endorsement)."

Parker, owner and operator of Canyon's Western Auto Store since 1947, said he knew Truman, when the former president was in the same Masonic Lodge as he during the early 1930s.

This week, Parker and his wife, Irene, and three store employees are celebrating the 25th anniversary of operation of Western Auto here.

At 62 years of age Parker looks back over his life both in Missouri and in Canyon with satisfaction. Said he: "We've had a good relationship with the people of Canyon over the years, and we're looking forward to many more."

"This is home," he and wife, Irene, agree.

"When we came here," remarked Bud, "we didn't intend to stay, but—"

Irene spoke suddenly in an interview and said, "The people here were so warm and friendly that we knew we'd never find people like these anywhere else."

Parker conducts his business "on a personal basis," he said. (See 25TH, Page 7)

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Former Senator Ralph W. Yarborough was in town Monday.

As usual, Yarborough succeeded in making himself look more foolish than anything else.

For openers he attacked the Texas legislative system noting that the US Congress is more capable of spending money wisely than the state legislature.

This coming from the king of boondoggie was far past the point of being ludicrous. After going to the Senate on a fluke in the late 1950s, Yarborough soon built a reputation for his belief that any problem can be solved by pouring enough tax money on it.

What Mr. Yarborough is saying, in effect, is that Washington spending is somehow wiser than local spending in spite of overwhelming evidence to the contrary.

Ralph lashed out at the Nixon administration for resumption of bombing of North Viet-

House.

Don't sell Yarborough short. He has hard core support and will be tough in the primary. In any event, I think John Tower will win re-election next fall.

Men are more apt to forgive criticism of their actions than are their wives.

I talked Monday to the charming wife of a young politician. She said she finds criticism of her husband hardest to take in politics.

She loves getting out and meeting people. That part of politics is fun, she says. But when she hears her husband criticized she sees red.

Another young wife of a politico was angry just because someone announced for office against her husband.

Happy is the father adored by his children—especially his daughters.

Mrs. Luci Nugent paid poignant tribute to her father, Lyndon Johnson, in a speech here Monday night. It was all the more tender because Mrs. Nugent had just received word that her father had had a relapse after having suffered a heart attack last week.

She gave her father, the former President, credit for any good she may be able to accomplish now or in the future.

The daughters of Barefoot Sanders, candidate for the Democratic nomination to the US Senate, lauded their father here Tuesday evening.

"My father is dedicated," declared Janet, his eldest. "He could make $100,000 a year in private practice. He's a good lawyer but he wants to serve the people."

Younger sister, Martha, echoed Janet's sentiments.

One of the tenderest stories I've ever read was written by a son of Benito Mussolini about II Duce. The son did not view his dad as did the world—a swashbuckling pirate, rapist of Ethiopia and Albania.

His attitude toward his father was reflected in the gentle, simple title of his manuscript: "I Remember Papa."

Abner McCall, president of Baylor University, says inflation has done more than any other thing to damage education.

He also noted in a visit here last week that much of the blame for inflation may be laid at the door of federal spending a great deal of which has been on education.

In 1968 the Democrats laughed at George Wallace. No one in either party is laughing now.

Wallace is a contender for the Democratic nomination and his success in that role must be giving Kennedy, McGovern and Humphrey goose pimples.

I wonder if H. M. Baggary, who has always prided himself in blindly supporting ANY Democratic candidate, would support George if the fiery little Alabama governor gets the nomination.

By CAROL CRAIN

MRS. LUCI NUGENT certainly charmed the people of Canyon with her sincere warmth and friendliness.

The former White House resident spoke about learning disabilities here Tuesday night at Canyon Junior High School.

The reception for LBJ's petite daughter was very well organized by Mrs. Hazel Strickland assisted by the Canyon Classroom Teachers.

Canyon ladies in long spring creations added to the beauty of the evening.

Robert Vaughn To Speak On Effects Of Technology

The onetime "Man From U.N.C.L.E." Dr. Robert Vaughn, will lecture at West Texas State University Monday at 8 p.m.

His appearance is sponsored by the Student Activities Council and his subject will be The Effect of Technology on Today's Society. The lecture will be in the Activities Center ballroom.

Vaughn, one of the film industry's busiest actors, completed has also kept up his interest in politics. He attended the 1968 Democratic National Convention as an observer and served the BBC as a political commentator during the 1970 British elections.

Vaughn says he does not intend to turn to politics as a career. "I'm an actor by profession—and choice, and I consider it a choice profession," Vaughn says.

After grammar and high school in Minneapolis, Vaughn enrolled in the University of Minnesota's journalism school, aiming for a career in the newspaper world. But his interest in theatre competed with his studies. After receiving a master's degree in drama in 1956 at Los Angeles State college he decided on a full time acting career.

He keeps trim with tennis and basketball and devotes as much time as possible to reading.

Although a young man, Vaughn has been around a long time and contemplates staying around much longer. He says acting may be an art, but it is also a profession and the successful practitioner is one who operates with both feet on the ground.

WTSU students will receive two complimentary tickets upon presentation of their identification cards at the ticket office. Cost for adults is $2 and for students not enrolled at WTSU $1. Tickets can be purchased at the Activities Center.

his dissertation for a Doctorate in Philosophy Degree in mass communications at the University of Southern California in 1970.

During a busy acting schedule which took him to San Francisco for Warners-Seven Arts' Bullitt, to Czechoslovakia to portray the Nazi major in the Bridge at Remagen, to England to play the surgeon in The Mind of Mr. Soames and to Rome to play the U.S. ambassador to England in The Statue, Vaughn edited his doctoral dissertation to a readable length which will be published under the title, Only Victims.

Although the schedule was enough to keep him occupied, he

Candidates Visit Mescalero Residents

By TOOTIE BYBEE

HOWDY once again from out here to you where ever you just might happen to be at this time. Well, I hope and I think that Spring is really here and boy this is one ole gal that is ready and happy to see it come around.

THE LIT-TLE editorial I wrote concerning our up and coming County Commissioner race brought a few surprises this past week.

Guess I didn't think anyone read this little corner of news except maybe my friends and neighbors. Well, it works out that a few more than that read it as we have had several more of the candidates out visiting with us and we really gave them the questions and we heard some real good answers and good sound reasoning. Thanks to each of them that took the time to come by and visit with us.

WAS SO very happy to meet Mike Hudson's mother, Mrs. Paul Hudson (Floy) who was up visiting from Melrose, N.M. She stayed a while with Blanche while Mike was in Springfield Illinois on business and her husband was in Washington on business. So, those two had a nice little visit minus the men folk.

HEARD THAT little ole sweet Denise Malwon had a good bunch of fun this week end with a couple of her ole friends from Amarillo.

SO VERY happy over the contest that Greg Jones and his trio were in. They took second place at Lubbock over the week end. This was a Church sponsored Talent search State wide. Out of about 200 different contestants they took second and to me that is about the best I've heard this week.

SAW A few of you out this week end but was so busy myself doing yard work it was hard to see you. Saw Sherry and Glenna Evans in the back of the pick-up going to see the gliders. Aren't those Gliders just so pretty to watch soar over? Mrs. Alley and Mrs. Buckles out working in their yard. Kathy Rogers out bicycling around the Park. The Holmans taking a leisurely drive through the Park. Roger Whitehead on his motorcycle with Spooky on behind.

SORRY TO HEAR that Joyce Minor has been a little under the weather and hope that she is better. Take good care of little Marcy, Joyce.

GUESS YOU all know by now that little Mike Morgan has been in the hospital since last Thursday and is very ill. Hope this finds him in much better spirits. Get well real quick, Mikie.

THE EVANSES had some company over this week end—Leroy's brother Lloyd from Pampa—and they all went scouting Garage Sales. That's so much fun.

THE CAMP FIRE Girls went shopping for their supplies for the Council wide Camp out at Don Harrington the 28th. So guess they all are about ready to pack and go.

THE TOW household was jumping this week end. Ann's sister, Jane, and husband were down from Jal, N.M. The kids went to see the Glen Campbell Show and enjoyed it. Then Sunday, they all went to Dalhart for the motorcycle races. All had a real good time and enjoyed the visit together.

WELL, want to tell you about "featured Family" this week. It is the D. A. Malsons on the end of XIT Trail. They have two children, Denise, 12, and Matt, 9. D. A. works at American Smelting and Refining and Betty is a housewife and mother. D. A.'s hobby is building lovely pieces of furniture and their home shows off much of his fine work. Betty likes to paint and does a lot of sewing. If I were guessing I would say their real hobby was the building, decorating and furnishing of their home, which is just lovely. They built the whole thing all alone, just the two of them. Betty was born and raised right in good ole Amarillo and D. A. in Leedy, Okla. So, glad they moved into our community. Below are two recipes that are exclusively Betty's, and she shared them with us. The first one is a special one for special occasions. It is a type of potato salad and she said she could never make enough and it was all gone too soon. She uses it for big gatherings and special holidays when there are a bunch of hungry folks around.

Betty's Own Potato Salad

Boil the potatoes and then dice them. To them, add chopped green onions, chopped pimentos, fresh cucumbers. Brown 1 lb. of bacon until good and crisp and crumble into salad. Make a dressing from vinegar and a small amount of bacon drippings and pour over salad.

Betty said she used about ten pounds of potatoes when she had lots of company and proceeded to mix to taste. Sounds so good.

THIS IS the second favorite of her family:

Betty's Holiday Salad

1 can of mandarin orange sections
1 can grapefruit sections
1 can minted pineapple chunks
Fold this into sour cream and miniature marshmallows then fold in whipped cream. Add maraschino cherries and pecans if desired. Let it set in refrigerator awhile. The longer it sets the better it gets.

SO, HOPE YOU try these, they both sound so delicious. I'll sign off for this week and tell you if your name wasn't in this column, you didn't call me. In fact no one did this week and I hope you will next week. I promise I won't try to tell you another subscription, if that is why you aren't calling. I just expect everyone will buy one. Really, do give me a call this was a short column this week and I know some of you did something over this lovely week end so call, I miss hearing from you.

ONE LAST WORD: To all my friends and neighbors: PLEASE CALL

Steve Hilton plays Hoffman in the WTSU Opera Workshop production of Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman" which opened Wednesday night in the Branding Iron Theatre. Linda McNeil is Antonia. Performances at 8 p.m. will run through Saturday evening.

WTSU Professor Named To Forensic Academy

Selection of Dr. Charles G. Smith, assistant professor of biology at West Texas State University, to the American Academy of Forensic Sciences was announced today.

The selection was based on his recent research into the so-called fingerprints left by a discharged firearm. He presented a paper on the research at the 24th meeting of the academy in Atlanta, Ga., last month.

The purpose of the organization is to encourage the study, improve the practice, elevate the standards and advance the cause of the forensic sciences.

Only those actively engaged in the practice of scientific application to legal problems or in research related to these problems are eligible to be named to the academy.

Smith, a former chemist and toxicologist with the Texas Department of Public Safety, says the results of his research are useful in the investigation of crimes where firearms are employed.

He was graduated with honors from Abilene Christian College in 1942 and received a Ph. D. from the University of Oklahoma in 1967, the year he joined the West Texas State faculty.

License Required For Child Care

Any person who cares for an unrelated child in their home in Canyon must obtain a license from the Department of Public Welfare, according to Betty Swaringen.

Mrs. Swaringen said there were numerous such facilities in Canyon and only two were licensed.

There are three types of facilities possibly operating in Canyon which are of concern to Mrs. Swaringen.

They are a Day Care Center which is any place conducted without profit, which cares for more than six children during a part of the 24 hours of the day;

A Commercial Day Care Center which is any place conducted for profit which cares for more than six children; and a commercial boarding home which is a private home or place of residence of any person which operates for profit, where six or less children under sixteen years of age are cared for.

Every person, association, institution or corporation, whether operating for profit or without profit, who is conducting a child-care facility must obtain a license to operate, according to the law.

Mrs. Swaringen said no license is required to keep children in the children's own home but it is required when the children are taken to another home.

Mrs. Swaringen said the law is written solely to protect children and it is a simple procedure to obtain a license. "Our only concern is for the welfare of the children," she said.

Mrs. Swaringen said before a license is granted, the department requested the fire inspector to check for fire hazards, the sanitation department of Amarillo to check for health hazards, and the foster parents must have a medical statement from their doctor.

Someone from the department of Public Welfare will also visit in the home. Further requirements include a bed for each child and a fenced-in yard.

Certain advantages are also available to a licensed facility, Mrs. Swaringen said.

The department keeps a list of licensed facilities at all times and refers parents to these facilities when they receive calls for information, she said. The state office in Austin also sends pamphlets on child care which are beneficial, she said.

The license is reviewed annually, she said, unless for some reason the department feels it should be done sooner.

"We need licensed day care centers so we will work with any person in any way we can to help them obtain a license," she said.

aches and nausea when confronted with visual stress," she said.

Mrs. Nugent began her visual training in September of 1963 two months before the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. She said her teachers expected her grades to go down but instead she began to show improvement and two years later was making B's.

When her visual training began, Mrs. Nugent said she thought the doctors were a "bunch of quacks" and she resented being called out of study hall "to draw circles on chalkboards, put pegs in holes and walk on balance boards."

"But I soon found if I worked hard I could achieve," she noted.

Mrs. Nugent said she wanted to stress the fact that a learning disability can be experienced by anyone, no matter what background.

"My father spent 35 years of his life trying to improve the health, welfare and dignity of all mankind. He was president of the United States, wealthy and had concern for me but that didn't help my problem," she declared.

"You can't have your life changed and dust off your hands and walk away, not when you come from a family as involved and committed as mine—when there is a chance of helping one other person avoid the trauma I experienced."

Mrs. Nugent said in 1965 she began working with Volunteers for Vision whose purpose is to discover the visually disadvantaged child.

Mrs. Nugent said studies had been conducted in detention homes and a large percentage of the children in the homes had learning disabilities.

"They are intelligent enough to go out and be successful in an area not acceptable to society. We hear of the ingenuity of criminal acts which a child probably would never have come up with if their problem had been solved at an early age," she stated.

She stressed in an interview before her speech she is not involved in politics. "I have personal political convictions that run deep because I spent such a large part of my life with it."

"I am deeply concerned and interested but I want to be a person of balance exposed to various demands, needs and challenges in life," she said.

Mrs. Nugent said she expected to become involved in politics again someday, "but not right now."

She said she had sincere respect for some of the goals of Women's liberation but enjoyed being female and felt very liberated.

"Some things about Women's Lib are important although I basically believe moderation in most pursuits fits my temperament," she pointed out.

He said the Nixon administration "is putting the heat on employers to hire vets to keep them out of school" so the administration would not have to pay for the veteran's schooling.

"If they can get them a job right quick, they don't have to pay them and their earnings all their life will be less," Yarborough charged.

Yarborough said he was author of the Cold War GI Bill and also worked for the passage of the National Defense Education Act, the Work Study Bill, the Opportunity Plan, and the Higher Education Facility Act.

He said Texas was 30th in the nation in education and 31st in per capita income. "The income will never go above that until we raise education," he stated.

When asked about Nixon's family assistance plan, Yarborough said he finds everyone dissatisfied with welfare, the recipients and taxpayers, and he would be willing to vote for the plan and give it a try.

He stated there were more people in the poverty bracket last year than the year before for the first time in eight years.

The shaken truck driver, DeBord, passed out from shock at the scene and was rushed to Nebett Hospital. He was released following emergency treatment.

Gunn's body was taken to N.S. Griggs Funeral Home in Amarillo. Graveside rites and burial for Gunn were conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Fairview Cemetery in Albuquerque, N.M.

Boyter said he charged DeBord with a homicide by vehicle complaint based on failure to yield right-of-way.

time invitations will not be overlooked, and they said they hoped Canyon city fathers will attend.

Randall County Judge Woody Pond said after the hour-long meet: "I think these meetings are real productive. We exchange ideas, and we need to have more of them."

No date, he said has been set for next meeting of city and county commissioners from both counties.

Amarillo Mayor Ray Vahue told the Canyon News that the cities of Amarillo and Canyon—as well as the counties—should cooperate in finding "ways to save money for all of our taxpayers. We need to help each other," he declared.

Stiff mentioned a program of tax-revaluation in his city, hinting that Canyon city fathers might be interested in such a program. "We try to reevaluate on a continuing basis every five years," he said.

"Ninety percent of those on relief are elderly or have small children and can't work," Yarborough said. "The brawny men are out of work because of the Nixon economy. They don't want relief, they want unemployment compensation."

The candidate declared the budget deficit in 1965 was $1.2 billion, in 1970 $2.8 billion and last year was $23 billion. He said the deficit this year was expected to be $40 billion.

"Inflation is going to be much worse next year," Yarborough predicted. Yarborough said he would vote to terminate the war

Too, this man has contributed much of his time and energy to the community.

He organized the Canyon Little League some 17 years ago, right after coming to the city. He watched his son, Craig, take to the baseball diamond, and assisted in the LL program for many years in many ways.

And for the past 24 years he's been active in Scouting. Some 10 years ago, he received the Silver Beaver Award, given for high achievement to Scout leaders who give their time to the young and exhibit outstanding community spirit.

"These are things the President could do tomorrow," Yarborough said.

Yarborough said he did not believe the bombing of North Vietnam to be effective. "They fought the Chinese for 200 years, then the Japanese, then the French and now we are the occupying power," he noted.

"I don't think they will give up until they are independent," he stressed.

Yarborough said he was in favor of reducing the penalty for the use of marijuana from a felony to a misdemeanor but would not change the penalties for the pushers.

He said he would not place labor unions under anti-trust laws. "You can't compare one man to General Motors," he stated.

He said he would not vote for no-fault insurance at the present time because he had found it led to a disregard for traffic laws.

declares.

The Farm Bureau said when the program began in the fall, the members felt it was to be of a temporary nature but are now told the program is to be in effect for an undetermined time beginning June 1.

McCasland said the organization is calling the problem to the attention of the Congressmen "because we feel they should know about it." He said he hoped other organizations would join the Farm Bureau.

"We hope they will study the program and give it more thought," he added. "There are a lot of people who don't realize what is coming," he said.

McCasland said the cattle have been inspected many times and the entire herd is inspected every time any part of the herd is moved.

The new rules for cattle dipping provide for dipping of all cattle in movement except those animals that:

Are moving directly to slaughter, are moving to a livestock market, are moving to a livestock market for sale and dipping prior to release.

Are released from a livestock market to a dip point with an official permit, are moving to an official dipping point, have been dipped within the past seven days, are from a non-control area moving through the control area with no stopovers.

Are being moved by the same owner from one place to another within the quarantined area, have been dipped within seven days from scabies-infested states with permit or with a permit to be dipped upon arrival, or are from a non-control area being moved into the control area for grazing.

Gene Howe NewsMiss Hefley Wins at Tennis

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

A BIG CONGRATULATIONS to that strawberry blond seventh grader, Alexis Hefley who was the only student from the Canyon School system to win in the district tennis match, and what's more she played a young lady who was a sophomore from Tulia. Alex, we're all proud of you, another Christie Everett, eh what???

BY THE WAY, speaking of tennis, y'all be sure to catch the West Texas Tournament coming up this Friday and Saturday. WT will host New Mexico University, Air Force Academy, Oklahoma City University, New Mexico State University and Amarillo College. Should be some real great matches and the action gets under way at 9 a.m. on Friday at the West Texas courts, the Tennis Center, and Memorial Park in Amarillo. Hope to see you there and lots of luck to our good guys.

CONGRATULATIONS TO NOBIE CATES who has been promoted to Petty Officer, 3rd Class in the Navy. Nobie was home recently to visit the folks and friends, but has now gone to San Diego, Calif. for four weeks of survival training, then on to Moffat Field outside of San Francisco where he will be in the Air-Sea Rescue school. We're all proud of you, Nobie, and keep us posted as to your progress.

A HAPPY ANNIVERSARY to Eldon and Melvina Brown.

THE BILL HARP FAMILY and Anita White tooted down to College Station last weekend to catch the drill meet that Duane (Harp) and Bruce Crager (from Canyon proper) took part in (poor sentence structure)....In any event, the drill meet took place on the Texas University campus in Austin (as you know, Duane and Bruce are cadets at Texas A & M). The Texas A & M freshman drill team is the national champion for the fifth consecutive year. This was established at recent competition in Washington, D.C., and while there Duane and Bruce visited points of interest and marched in the Cherry Blossom parade.

AND, BACK TO MOMMA and Daddy Bear (no, Harp)—on the way down to see Duane, et al, he Harps motored by Dallas to visit with Ernestine's sister Helen Shelton. Everyone reports a good time.

A MOST INFORMATIVE evening was spent Monday at the Junior High when the guests were pleased to hear Mrs. Luci

Nugent, daughter of the former President Lyndon B. Johnson, expound upon her own involvement with a visual perception problem. She was a very relaxed and warm speaker, and surely all of us involved in the Canyon School system even more convinced that we had such a superior system and certainly we can take pride in and should send a vote of thanks to our governing board in times past that had the vision to lay the ground work in order that we could be among the first to have an L.L.D. program in our system. Mrs. Nugent also conveyed to the audience that she was surrounded by such an atmosphere of achievement in their home that she could do nothing less than her best to maintain the same high level of excellence and/or achievement if not during the early years of her life, very definitely as she started to mature. And, finally, we sincerely hope her father will continue to improve and we are glad she came our way and shared her thoughts with us. AN ENJOYABLE TIME WAS had by all who attended the District Eight Spring Conference of the PTA held in the American Legion Hall in Nazareth last week. Those tootling over from Gene Howe were Ernestine Harp, Melvina Brown, Doris Nash, Darlene Campbell, Raydell Palmer, Glynna Schmidt and me. It was interesting to hear the speakers expound upon the pros and cons of a four quarter school year as opposed to our present semester structure. Mr. Robert Ashworth, superintendent of the Amarillo Independent School system was there (and was one of the speakers) and I have wondered for years why our own superintendent, Jerry Jacobs, does not attend these functions.

SAY, DID YOU HAPPEN to catch the track meet Saturday last. Wow, you ought to see that Bob Glyser move out on the hurdles. That boy can run. Others that were involved in various events were Matt Hanson and Kelly Forehand. Don't know the results or who else, but it was good to see these. (What did your darling do? Why not call me and we'll share it with our readers?) Y'all phone me your news...376-9853 or 352-2089.

The car fire was not very big at West Texas State Thursday, but it sure did draw a large crowd. Fireman extinguished the blaze quickly, but not before the engine was badly damaged.

Trio Plays For Club

A composition by a West Texas State University professor and works by Mozart and Schumann are programmed for a recital by the WTSU Piano Trio April 25 at Panhandle.

The performance, scheduled at 8 p.m., is sponsored by the Panhandle Athenaeum Club and under auspices of the WTSU Faculty Performance Series.

The series, inaugurated last fall, provides at no cost to area art organizations programs in art, music, drama and speech. Funding is through the WTSU Friends of Fine Arts.

Programmed for the recital will be Nocturne, a composition by Dr. George Eason, associate professor of music and pianist with the trio. Also scheduled are Mozart's Trio in B Flat Major, and Schumann's Trio in d minor.

The Trio includes violinist Dr. Donald Todd, associate professor of music, and cellist Brian Walton and Pianist George Eason, both assistant professors of music.

Organized in 1967, the Trio has given concerts in four states and has been featured in performances sponsored by various civic groups and music clubs in the Texas Panhandle.

WASN'T MARCH SUPPOSED to be the windy month of the year? Well, I guess one cannot isolate one month as being the windy month here on the High Plains, but I do know that we contestants in the Canyon News subscription drive have battled some pretty fierce winds the last two weeks trying to make sales. However, the wind has not been nearly as fierce as some of the dogs I have faced! All in all though, the contest is going well, and I have enjoyed meeting many new people.

THERE ARE STILL TWO weeks left in the contest, and I still have plenty of receipts to give out. So please! Hurry and call me today, 622-1439, and I'll rush right over. Nothing is important enough to stand in the way of a sale and that's the truth.

THE WEEKEND PASSED and our work days sort of fizzled out! No one seemed to know what happened to the tar to patch the pavement. Seems as though some of the men got up bright and early Saturday morning and drove around looking for some of the other men, but unable to find them anywhere, drove back home.

SAY LADIES, KATHY Fleming suggested that what the men need is a little incentive on these work days. Four or five women could get together and prepare a luncheon in the park for the men on the days they decide to work. If the men knew we were going to go to the trouble of cooking lunch for them, then more of them would want to work, don't you think? Since it was Kathy's idea, you might give her a call and donate a dish for the next work day. Her number is 622-0601.

BEVERLY AND TAYLOR Norman recently returned from a ten day vacation covering eight states. They began by traveling through East Texas where the bluebonnets, azaleas and dogwood are in bloom. Beverly said it was really a beautiful sight and she wants to return there in fall when the leaves begin changing colors.

FROM EAST TEXAS they continued on through Louisiana to Arkansas. At that point they felt they were too close to their granddaughters not to go and see them, so they traveled 500 more miles to Odon, Indiana, to see their son and grandchildren.

LAST FRIDAY THE Normans returned home after a very enjoyable trip. By the way, Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Norman, vacationed with them and that made the trip even more enjoyable.

SUSAN INMAN, DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Inman celebrated her eleventh birthday April 8, and as Lorraine said, "Susie's birthdays have always been a big event for her grandfather and great uncle." And so it was this year when the Inmans hosted Susie's grandfather, Boston Justice from St. Joe, and her great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Opal Justice from Gainesville at Susie's birthday party. She received the usual gifts one receives on her eleventh birthday, but the best one of all was having her loved ones there to share in the fun.

DOUG HOOKER WAS released from the hospital last week and seems to be doing fine. He was in for tests to determine the cause of his severe headaches. The tests showed nothing really conclusive, but we are all happy to see Doug back to his old self again and hope his headaches remain few and far between!

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Carlile, queen for the coming year. The event took place a week ago last Tuesday at the YWCA in Amarillo. Carol competed against 21 other girls, and was so shocked when they called her name as winner that she just sat there, waiting for them to say there had been a mistake.

BUT THERE WAS NO mistake, and Carol received a crown and ten red roses. As queen, she will ride in all parades next year, will help in the Club's Charity work, and will be a guest at each of the Club's luncheons.

CAROL IS THE DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Carlile, 2504 Oak Drive, Amarillo. She is 17 years old and is a junior at Palo Duro High School, where she is a member of the Student Council. Outside of school activities she is a member of Rainbow Girls. We join with her grandparents in wishing her a very prosperous year as Queen of the Downtown Lions, and extend to her hearty congratulations.

SEEMS AS THOUGH the Carlile family is full of celebrities this week. Tim, son of Marcella and Buster Carlile, took first place in the broad jump last week at Gene Howe Elementary. Tim, a second grader, competed against others his age and grade, and leaped past them all with a jump of 5'2". Just one hop behind was Michelle Walker, who came in second place with her jump of 4'8".

KEEPING IT "ALL in the family" was Randy Carthel last Saturday night when he raced in the indoor races at the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum. He had planned to race his new 250 Ossa, but he was unable to get good traction on it, so he proved his racing ability once more on his "underpowered" 125 Penton.

RANDY MADE IT ALL the way to the main event and placed fourth. Just think what that boy could have done on that 250 Ossa!

ANYONE INTERESTED in the banty hen business? If you are, Mrs. Jack Stephens, 622-0540, has two to give away. Seems as though she had to pen them up for some reason, and the hens are not one bit pleased! So Mrs. Stephens would like to give them away. If you're interested, give her a ring.

PALISADES WINDOW stickers are still available if you would like one. They're only $25 each and are very colorful. You can purchase one or ten from Joyce McDonald or Dan Bailey. Support and promote your community. Buy a window sticker! I AM VERY PLEASED to announce that beginning this week Lake Tanglewood News will be published right along with Palisades News. Mrs. Lorene Walker is the news gatherer and she'd appreciate it if you would call her at 622-0231 if you have any news about Lake Tanglewood residents. She in turn, calls me and I write it up.

I HOPE THAT THIS joint column will encourage some of you who are not presently taking the Canyon News to let me write you out a subscription! I think you'll find that reading about what your neighbors are doing is really fun. Who knows? You may have something in common with someone and not know it until you read about their activities in the paper!

TWO PALISADES FAMILIES have had guests recently. Garland and Mildred Turner entertained Garland's aunt, Blanche Chaney, and her son, Kenneth, over the weekend. They are from Paducah. Nell Moore's mother, Mrs. Oma Taylor is visiting with her this week. Mrs. Taylor is originally from Borger, but she has spent the last year and a half with her son and his wife in Norwalk, Ohio.

MRS. WALKER WORKED on pretty short notice this week, and as a result, the news is also pretty short. But next week will be better. Don't forget to call her and give her your news!

LAKE TANGLEWOOD NEWS

THE LAKE TANGLEWOOD Community Church is really getting its feet on the ground with a regular attendance of about 150. Last Sunday Dr. Robison, the minister, announced that May will be the month for establishing a charter membership roll for the church. One may move his letter from town, or may want to establish an associate membership, one in which he maintains membership in his present church, but also remains active in the Lake Tanglewood non-denominational church.

THE ARTS AND CRAFTS Club will meet Monday, April 24, at 11 a.m. in the clubhouse. Members will then go to Amarillo for lunch at Furr's Cafeteria in Wolflin Village. Following lunch they will be given a tour of the Amarillo College Fine Arts Center. Should be a very interesting and fun outing for all you Arts and Crafts Club members, so be sure you're there to get in on the action!

SOUNDS LIKE FISHING is really good in the lake. Tom Ford caught a 9½ pound channel cat on his trot line last week. No one mentioned if he kept it or threw it back!

TANGLEWOOD RESIDENTS Mr. and Mrs. John Fick returned from a one week trip last Sunday. They both had gone to Dallas where Mr. Fick attended business meetings. Mrs. Fick went on to Shreveport to visit her mother for a while. Glad they are back and had a safe trip!

GRANDPARENTS PROBABLY get much more excited about the motorcycle races than do any other fans, especially if their grandson is running. Donnie Westfall, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Van Doran of Lake Tanglewood, raced Saturday night in Amarillo. Don't know if he placed or not, but he certainly thrilled his grandmother!

THAT'S ALL THE NEWS for now. Don't forget to call Mrs. Lorene Walker and give her your news. She'll appreciate it.

KEEP SMILING and have a good week!

Don Dolle, Canyon soil conservationist, left, measure just northwest of Happy. Wilhelm is and Happy farmer, Tom Wilhelm examine a to be honored at an upcoming banquet in Clarendon fine stand of grass planted as a conservation endon for his soil conservation work.

Farmer Is Honored

By LEWARD HOOD

It takes foresight and hard work to win the war against soil erosion—but that war can be won, claims Randall County Farmer Tom Wilhelm of Happy who has proved it.

Wilhelm will be named as the "Come-Back Farmer of the Year" for Randall County during an annual awards banquet to be held May 5 in Clarendon, said Don Dolle, soil conservationist based in Canyon with the Soil Conservation Service.

The "Come-Back Farmer" award is given to outstanding farmers whose soil and water conservation efforts have proved exceptional.

Dolle, whose task it is to assist area farmers and ranchers with conservation programs, pointed out that Wilhelm "has done a terrific job" of conserving soil and water on his land located about one-half of a mile northwest of Happy.

Wilhelm recently completely halted soil erosion on a portion of his section of land by planting 28 acres of grass, to make excellent grazing for his some 300 head of cattle at some point in the future.

Having farmed at the Happy site for the past 12 years, Wilhelm said he'd been "working closely" with soil technicians to accomplish what he has.

Explaining Wilhelm's achievement, Dolle said the star farmer bought his farm back in 1962. Then, he continued, the farm "was run down, gullied up and poisoned with weeds and blown-up fence rows. Tom visualized this land as if it had no gullies and the land was all pretty well leveled out.

"Tom went to work and constructed a grassed waterway which intercepted runoff from adjoining land—this stopped part of the gullies. He constructed two diversions and leveled about 100 acres of land. Most of this work he did himself. In the meantime he tore out at least five miles of old fences and leveled out the blow dirt that had accumulated over the years."

Dolle said those projects were but part of Wilhelm's conservation work. More recently, Wilhelm purchased an adjoining portion of land which was badly eroded and gully-ridden. Wilhelm constructed a second waterway of grass, with Dolle's help.

"Tom has just finished seeding twenty eight acres back to native grasses where severe erosion has taken place for several years. He has done great things in face-lifting this farm."

Dolle said Wilhelm has a "complete farm plan" including sound management practice with sound mechanical structures...and these go hand-in-hand to conserve both the soil and water and pay an economic and social dividend at the same time.

Wilhelm also farms a section of land due east of Happy. There, too, his conservation practice continues. But he has concentrated his efforts on the land northeast of Happy.

Wilhelm not only is proud of his land and his work, but also of his family. He and his wife, Delores, have seven children. What's so unusual about that? Four of them are twins, born consecutively.

"It doesn't happen very often,"

Wilhelm laughed.

Twins Patrick and Patricia, 8 years of age, were followed by twins Dennis and Denise, 5 years.

The other children are Shannon, 12; Beverley, 11; Roger, 10.

Wilhelm and Dolle both have the same goal: to conserve. As Dolle pointed out: "The farmer is only a temporary steward to the land, and we are trying to save it for use and benefit of our future generations."

Barn Razed In Fire

Fire, swept by strong southwest winds, razed a barn owned by Taylor-Foster Developers just east of the Canyon city limits shortly after noon Tuesday.

Cause of the blaze, reported Joe Rice of the Canyon Volunteer Fire Dept., was undetermined as an investigation continued.

Rice said the building went up in flames before firemen could reach the scene, in the Crow Addition of the city.

The barn was a storage facility, of wood-frame construction, which contained supplies and equipment.

"The barn was totally involved in fire before it was seen," Rice stated. A resident who lives near the structure reported the fire, which sent flames billowing into the sky about 12:25 p.m.

Firemen expended 13,900 gallons of water in their 1½ hour operation at the scene.

The building, Rice said, was an old one, probably built sometime in the 1920's. Monetary damage was not expected to be extensive, he added.

A barn owned by Taylor-Foster Developers said Canyon volunteer firemen, fanned the collapsed in flame and rubble Tuesday after a flames, and the structure was destroyed the midday fire struck, sending smoke high into before firemen could act effectively. the air on the east side of Canyon. Andree Juliette Brun...recitals from Canyon to Carnegie Hall.

Kenneth Laycock To Describe Trip

Dr. Kenneth Laycock will speak on his recent trip to Russia and Europe at 7 p.m. Sunday at First United Methodist Church. He brought back slides from his travels and will show them. Dr. Laycock, who is vice-president for planning and development at West Texas State University, visited Moscow, Leningrad, Tallinn, Estonia, and Bulgaria, France, and Denmark. His main emphases Sunday night will be on Russia. Special music will precede his talk.

The daughters of democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate Barefoot Sanders visited in Canyon for a short while Tuesday. Janet, left the panhandle.

BY NELL WILLIAMS

Last Sunday afternoon she played in the auditorium of Canyon High School.

Friday evening she will play to a Carnegie Hall audience in New York City.

Paris-educated pianist Andree Juliette Brun has been preparing for her first Carnegie Hall recital with a crowded schedule of personal appearances, radio and television engagements, and autograph session in the New York area.

Her Canyon performance was part of a tour which included Gallup and Artesia, N.M., for the Community Concerts Association. She played the final offering for Canyon's 1971-72 season.

Although she has played 700 concerts in the past 15 years, including 200 in this country and seven tours in South America, she has never appeared in New York, except in one joint recital. Nonetheless, when she arrived in Canyon last Friday night, it was with the heartening knowledge that the orchestra in the 3,000-seat hall was sold out. Balcony tickets will be no problem, because of the students in New York, predicted the artist.

Musicians should do more to help promote their appearances, thinks the practical Frenchwoman. Many artists, she said, believe that to practice conscientiously and play well is enough, but she believes that her own current experiment in promoting good music is worth recommending.

One appearance took place in the mall of a large shopping center in New Jersey, and was, she said, a "wonderful experience." Her manager brought in a "very nice piano" and she played amid the greenery in the mall's central area. "They turned off the fountain, and people were very attentive," she affirmed.

One woman with a little boy stopped to listen, and then the mother wanted to go on and buy shoes, recalled Miss Brun. "Oh, no, Mama, I want to stay and listen. She plays so nicely," the little boy said, according to a friend of the pianist's.

Miss Brun has lived in New York only during the past year. Before moving, she was artist-in-residence at Pepperdine College in Los Angeles. The arrangement meant that she was free to go away on tour and, "when I came back, they liked me even more."

She moved to New York because it is this country's musical center, and "you have to be close to God."

"I have a good reputation in the music world and was busy on the West Coast, but people don't know about me." Her New York recital was helped by music lovers for whom she has played since her move. About 25 people bought blocs of tickets which they resold to friends.

"Pursuing a career in music is done by knowing people who appreciate you, and you have to cultivate these contacts. They don't come overnight."

Although she loved the California climate and has kept her home "with a lovely garden," she considers "its gorgeous weather" a drawback for performers. "so many times, people decide they'd just rather go to the beach for the day."

Also, she finds that New York is "very cosmopolitan—very close to the spirit of Europe. Paris is very much a part of me." There, "I go back to a different way of life. I love the pure beauty of the cities—Paris, Rome. It's a refreshing bath of beauty."

In this country, said the native of Paris, nature is very beautiful, but not all the cities are "though Washington is, and New York has its own beauty."

She finds the citizens of the country "warm - hearted, broadminded and friendly. . . . Sometimes in Europe, they tend to be too conservative. But here, there is a challenge all the time."

Americans are friendly and unselfish, and always willing to help, she has found, though she admits that New York, where so many people are gathered "doesn't represent the character of the United States. It is a hard, tough city."

During her visit home, she expects to play a June recital in Paris. Her mother lives about 20 miles from Paris at Bethemont la Foret, which is on the edge of a forest and near a village where many Impressionists did their painting. She remembers her years of study in Paris as a very formal hard-working time.

Students studied with assistant teachers and played for the heads of the school about once a month, said Miss Brun, who started to study at the age of 4. "We were always in awe of our teacher," she recalled.

The monthly "inspections" by Marguerite Long, who headed Miss Brun's first school, were frightening sessions at which the student played from memory everything she had learned during the last month, and the school's head commented, not to the student, but to the assistant teacher.

The early start in music was Miss Brun's own idea. Her sister, six years older, studied in Miss Long's school, and, one day, at the monthly session, the little girl insisted that she, too, could play. Her mother, horrified, protested, "I assure you she cannot play the piano," but Miss Long agreed to hear the child and then accepted her into the school.

"And," added the artist ruefully, "I have never had that assurance since."

Miss Brun believes that the successful concert pianist should start piano lessons by 8 or 10 at the latest. "I don't know if 10 is not a little late. Five or 6 is the ideal age."

City Dads Back From New York

The Canyon City Commission returned early in the week from a "successful" trip to New York for a conference with bond-rating officials concerning attainment of a higher credit rating for the city.

George Louder reported Wednesday that bonding officials of Moody Investment Service, Inc., "were favorably impressed."

They made a number of complimentary statements (about Canyon's financial status). And we think they were impressed with the leadership shown in Canyon.

"It was a real good session and our financial advisor (Bob Davis) gave an excellent presentation. We had all of the correct answers for their questions."

Louder said commissioners met at 10:30 a.m. Monday in New York with John Barrera, representative of Moody's. "We discussed and described improvements made (in the city's economy) in the last few years. And we went into detail about refunding of bonds and gave them a financial picture of our water-utility fund."

Louder said commissioners came away optimistic about obtaining an A rating to replace the current Baa rating. Louder said hopes are that the city will get the highest rating possible, the A-1 rating.

Louder also said that Barrera told commissioners a bond rating committee meeting in New York was scheduled either late Friday of this week or early next week. "We should hear about our rating results after that session," Louder said.

The city manager also said Barrera indicated to the commission that he would go over the bond rate request with New York analysts.

New Business For Canyon

Canyon has been selected as site for a new Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant, it was announced this week.

The location will be at the old Red Barn site, across from the West Texas State University campus, reported Kentucky spokesman Gary Hayhurst of Amarillo.

Cost of the project is estimated at $125,000.

The new restaurant will seat some 16 people in 40 booths, Hayhurst said. "Everything is ready to go."

Construction is to start with clearing operations next week, with completion expected by July 15, Hayhurst said. The old barn structure will be razed, with the new restaurant building replacing it.

Six Teams In WTSU Net Tourney

Six teams will compete Friday and Saturday in the West Texas State University Team Tennis Matches.

As all teams do not play each other in the two day meet, there may be more than one winner of the event. Competing teams are West Texas State, New Mexico University, Air Force Academy, Oklahoma City University, and New Mexico State and Amarillo College.

The featured match will be an indoor battle between West Texas and the Air Force Academy at 4:30 p.m. Friday in the Activities Center. The number one and number two singles matches for that event start at 6:30 p.m.

Loud Coyotes Howl, Harass Sleepy Residents

By MARY NEAL HENRY

THE COYOTES GAVE us fits last Thursday night or rather early Friday morning the howled all the way up to the back fence. Bo and Pete, that is our German Shepherd and our Austrian Shepherd, were barking like crazy and giving them fits right back...that is from the edge of the house. They may be cowards, but they aren't stupid. (We lost one German Shepherd to a pack of coyotes.) Sheri and Tom couldn't sleep, so Sheri got up and put Pete in the house. Pete is the smaller dog. He probably a batch of brownies and individually wrapped and scotch taped each brownie for a concession stand the next day at school. Not only that, but these have been placed in a box and set in the chair by the front door to make absolutely sure that they will not be forgotten the next morning on the mad dash to school. Yes! Pete had a feast. Sheri asked, "How did he unwrap all those brownies?" I'm sure it was easy. I thought that I had just shampooed that carpet before the book review last week. So I just went to work. The sweets must have been too sweet or got in his teeth. He also ate a head scarf and a straw hat. If there is a moral, it must be leave barking dogs outside.

FRIDAY MORNING I baked another pie and another batch of brownies and went to school to see how the District 3A Literary Meet was coming out. When I got there, my Sheri was sitting in a chair outside the science door. I thought she'd been naughty. I found out that she was stationed there to keep everyone out and those in the hall quiet. A science test was in progress. Happy did win the Literary Meet with a 155 total points. Hoo-ray! Debra Jackson and Vicki Wilson won second in debate; Kyle Todd won first in boys Oral Reading and Debbie McCarley, first in girls; Walter Stubblefield won first in spelling; Rick Hawthorne won first and Anita Hawthorne won second in the boys and the girls persuasive Speaking; Sandy Railsback won first in girls prose; Jerry House and Kay Spear each placed second in boys and girls poetry interpretation. The one Act Play won first at Farwell the day before. Jerry House is Best Actor and Sandy Railsback and Jini LaRoe made the all star cast and will go on to Regionals this weekend. Brenda Parker won second in ready writing for 5th and 6th grade and Cathy Parker won second in ready writing for Junior High. Dian Johnson won second in Oral Reading for Junior High. Sidney Eads won second in Oral Reading for Elementary boys and Pearl Perez won first for the girls. In Junior High Spelling, Shannon Wilhelm won first and Becky McCarley won second. We are most pleased with our young people. Lonnie Tackitt and Ronnie Jackson won District in Tennis. A Mother told me.

THE 4-H HORSE PROJECT had its first meeting on Friday night at the Happy Rodeo Arena. Wayne Pearson is their leader and "is assisted by Bob McDonald and several more," he said. This group was instructed in basic fundamentals of horsemanship, care of a horse, and instructed to keep records on this project. They practiced riding the barrels and pole bending. Meetings will be held every second and fourth Friday night in Happy and first and third Fridays in Tulia. County Playday will be held June 3; County show, June 12; and District, June 28, in Post, Texas. The state event will be held in Fort Worth again this year. Henry, Angeline Henry, Ronnie McDonald, David McDonald, Kyle Odom, Kevin Odom, Neal Odom, Nancy Wood, Bob Cole, Colette McCarley, Eddie Joe Pearson, Jay McCarley, Deana Venhaus, Sherrie Starkey, Gui Walt Via, Jim Bob Sims, and Valerie Tipps. Several parents were also present.

ADREN CUNNINGHAM and Tuffy Thompson won the team roping at Claude Friday night. Tuffy and George Jones won third. No one could seem to remember who won the second and fourth places. Maybe if it is someone who takes this paper we'll find out yet. Saturday at Panhandle, S. E. Mayo had a steer roping. Shi Hurst won first, Adren Cunningham, second and S. E. himself won third. Tom Henry tied the fastest steer of the afternoon in 19 seconds. Charlie Walser and Billy Settle won a matched team roping with Spicer Gripp and Jim Monroe after the steer roping.

This was followed by a luncheon and the decorations were Raggedy Ann dolls and petunias, blue and white checked table cloths, and lady bug pin cushions. The name tags were blue and white checked with a tiny lady bug in the corner. The Canyon Chapter gave a skit, "Fantastic". The Amarillo Chapter gave a style show beginning with the '20's and coming on down thru the years. Ora Mary said it was really good.

HAPPY COWBOY BAND held a banquet Saturday night in the High School cafeteria. About fifty four attended this event. The theme was "Music in the Air". Little black and gold music notes made from styrofoam balls adorned the tables. Music notes and horns hung from the ceiling. Donna McDonald, band president, welcomed the group to the banquet. Mr. Steve Ragsdale, band director, gave the response. Alvin Moudy pronounced the invocation. Chicken Fried Steak was the main course of the banquet. Eddie Wilson presented the skit, "I'm a lonely teenager." Mr. Ragsdale presented the Fall Outstanding Bandsman award to Donna McDonald. Donna presented Mr. Ragsdale with a gift of appreciation.

'New Day' To Tour Overseas

A New Day, West Texas State University pop-rock choral group, has been selected to tour overseas on behalf of the United States Department of Defense.

The Ensemble, conducted by Dr. Hugh Sanders, was chosen for the 30-day Caribbean tour, scheduled May 24-June 22, 1973. The itinerary includes the Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, Guantanamo Bay, the Bahama Island and the West Indies.

The selection was made by the Overseas Touring Committee of the National Music Council, the USO, and the Department of Defense on the basis of performance tapes by the group, Dr. Sanders said.

A New Day was formed last fall for the purpose of reaching a "TV-oriented" public and to give student vocalists the chance to sing and experience the "now" music of the younger generation, Sanders said.

Backed by a trio featuring piano, guitar and drums, A New Day performs such tunes as the Carpenters' "We've Only Just Begun" and "Blood, Sweat and Tears." "You Made Me So Very Happy."

In a letter announcing the group's selection, Joseph Blankenship, chairman of the Overseas Touring Committee, told WTSU President James P. Cornette that "in addition to providing entertainment for our servicemen, the tour offers a real opportunity for your group to be unofficial ambassadors for the United States in the foreign countries visited."

The letter said, "There is also an unusual educational opportunity for the members of your group; a number of colleges and universities have successfully integrated the tour with academic studies and thus provided the students with the background on the life and culture of the countries visited to enrich their foreign travel experience."

Mr. and Mrs. Everette Culp, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Todd, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Copelin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heil, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rhoades, and Mrs. Lena Ceb, Mr. and Mrs. John Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Posey Bonds, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Flowers.

I REMEMBER having to make posters in Home Economics when I was a freshman. I made a poster on Vitamin C that had bottles of pills etc. on it and some fresh fruit. I was shocked that I made a "D" on the poster and I asked the teacher about it. I had meant you should eat the fresh fruit for the Vitamin C so that you won't have to take the pills, but it didn't come out like that. I can see where a person can easily be misunderstood.

PEOPLE CAN BE THE greatest things in the world. Some have called me to come and write up their subscriptions and some have just sent me their checks. You all sure know how to make a gal feel good! Thanks! See ya!

Jacobs Says Growth Inevitable For Schools

Canyon School Superintendent Jerry Jacobs said Monday he feels the Canyon School District could grow 200 or 300 students a year for three or four years in a row in the near future.

"I think the school might pick up 100 or 150 students next year," Jacobs projected. "I hate to see our school system grow a whole lot, frankly. I think the growth of 30, 40 or 50 students a year like we are now experiencing is healthy, but to grow 200 or 300 students three or four years in a row...I hate to see, but I think it is inevitable," Jacobs told board members.

While reviewing the student enrollment summary Jacobs said, "The building trend in Amarillo has been to build in the southwest part of town. If the trend continues, in two or three years there will be only one place they can continue to build and that is in our school district."

"The likelihood of pretty drastic changes in student enrollment could happen at anytime," Jacobs cautioned.

Jacobs told trustees they needed to allocate the money in building trades budget to build one or two portable classrooms. "They (portable classrooms) have a very valid purpose—they are mobile and can accommodate growth on various campuses."

The Board voted to offer the first Methodist Church $10,000 in cash for one-half block of land on 11th Ave. across the street from the high school.

Dudley Moore, president of the school board, said he has been given an appraisal of $35 a front foot on the property by Bill Davis and A. L. Crossland, two Canyon realtors. There is almost 300 front foot on the land, Moore explained.

In speaking for the motion, board member Tom Keeling said, "With the scarcity of land I think it (the land) is worth $35 a front foot. In our past meetings we have talked about building the administration offices over there some time in the future."

In other business the board discussed special projects that could be included in the budget including remodeling the front of the building trades classroom on 15th street and the purchase of approximately 20 acres of land for an ag farm.

"I would like to see us get 20 acres, but I don't think we should

'Board Uninformed' - Stiff

By LEWARD HOOD

Amarillo City Manager John Stiff said Tuesday the board of governors of the Potter-Randall County Metro Intelligence Unit "should be better informed" as to the special law enforcement group's activities.

"In the past, they had no idea what's going on—that's not right," Stiff said—speaking of the Randall and Potter County Sheriffs and the Police Chiefs from Canyon and Amarillo, and West Texas State University Security Chief.

His remarks came during a meeting of Randall and Potter County Commissioners and Amarillo City Commissioners, held Tuesday at 8 a.m. at the Quality Motel, Amarillo.

Stiff also promised, "In the next year you're going to see more productivity out of the Unit. He also advised Randall commissioners that requests for funding are being studied, and the Metro Unit operations will continue "as-is" with no increases in the staff during the coming year.

Stiff called for "more effective participation by the government agencies of both Amarillo and Canyon. He said he thought the "flow of drugs has been reduced substantially" since the Metro Unit was formed. "And the juries have done a good job (returning convictions on drug offenses).

The Tuesday session was held to emphasize the growing importance of cooperation in law enforcement between various agencies of both Potter and Randall counties, Stiff said.

It was pointed out during the meeting that members of the Canyon City Commission were to receive invitations to the session, but that due to unintentional oversight, those invitations were not made by Amarillo organizers.

Ralph Yarborough said Monday he has not been sufficiently impressed in what the Texas legislature has done in the past 25 years to turn federal revenue sharing money over to

Texas in a lump sum.

Yarborough, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, said at a meeting in the Student Union Building at West Texas State University, "I have more confidence in how we (the U. S. Senate) distribute the money than how Barnes and Mutscher distribute it."

The candidate was discussing President Nixon's plan for revenue sharing with the states by giving the federal money to the states in a lump sum and letting the states decide on how to use the money.

Yarborough said when he was in the Senate, the money was given to Texas in categories after testimony on every bill from leaders in Texas.

"I have more faith in the judgement of Congress than I do in the way the Texas legislature has been operating recently," Yarborough said.

When asked to clarify his remarks about the Texas legislature Yarborough denied that he was criticizing the Texas legislators. The former Senator then said he was tired of the vicious editorials printed about him in The Canyon News.

Yarborough said he wished the paper would print the facts rather than its conclusions. "Just print what I say," he demanded. Yarborough did not refer to a specific story or incident.

Yarborough also slammed the Nixon administration's campaign

An Amarillo man perished in this grinding. Both vehicles spun off the road into a ditch following impact, described by Texas Highway Patrolmen as "terrific."

Homicide Charge Filed

A charge of homicide by vehicle was filed Monday in Randall County Court against a 21-year-old Amarillo truck driver in connection with last Saturday's spectacular car-truck collision at the intersection of Farm Roads 2219 and 250.

Charged was Melvin Glenn DeBord, Amarillo.

County Judge Woody Pond set bond of $1,000 for DeBord, who was arrested at 11:30 a.m. Monday and booked into Randall County jail. He was released on a personal recognizance bond at approximately 11:50 p.m., arrest records show.

DeBord was driver of the southbound semi-tractor-trailer gravel truck which collided with an eastbound auto driven on 2219 by Richard Eugene Gunn, 21, also of Amarillo. The gravel truck was entering the intersection from FM 2590, reported Texas Highway Patrolman Ronald Boyter, who investigated the accident.

Justice of the Peace W. W. Hancock pronounced Gunn dead at the scene at about 4:10 p.m.

Boyter said Gunn was "probably killed on impact" as the two vehicles collided, as the auto burst into flames.

"It was burning so strong there was nothing we could do," Boyter said. He said he arrived at the scene about five minutes after the collision.

Canyon volunteer firefighters had to cut off the top of the wrecked auto to get Gunn's body out, the patrolman said. He added that Gunn, an employee of Randall County Feedyards, had punched off the job there at 3:32 p.m.

For a short time after collision,

Farm Bureau Protests

The members of the Randall County Farm Bureau are protesting the Cattle Scabies Eradication Program.

The board of directors of the Farm Bureau have expressed their concern with the program in letters to Congressmen Graham Purcell and Bob Price, according to Bob McCasland.

McCasland, member of the board, said Tuesday the board voted unanimously to write the letters.

McCasland said he, Christler Crain and Ervin Davis were appointed as a committee to take some action to express the feelings of the board about the program.

The Farm Bureau protest follows an announcement made last week of stricter dipping requirements for cattle. The changes in the requirements are to begin June 1.

The letter states, "We understand that cattle scabies is a serious threat to the cattle industry; but, we also know that it is not injurious to the life of the cattle or to man as is anthrax or other such diseases."

"We feel a more practical approach to the problem should be taken. The measures being forced upon us are too harsh and more thought should be given to their consequences," the letter continues.

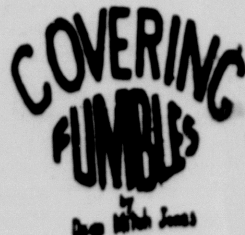

Randall County has had only minor occurrences of scabies and it has apparently been controlled through measures already taken, the letter states.

"Indiscriminate, mandatory dipping of all cattle prior to shipping would produce several consequences that we feel are more serious than the problem itself," according to Farm Bureau members.

The letter lists added expense to the consumer, added expense to the taxpayer, unnecessary pollution of the environment, the health and well-being of the cattle, profiteering by individuals at the expense of the cattleman, and increased cost to the producer.

"The cure seems to be fast becoming worse than the problem," the letter stresses. The machinery for its operation is already set up and working. Our only recourse is to write you and hope that you can afford us some relief before the problem becomes more serious," the letter

City Commission

Canyon's City Commission will meet in regular session at 7 p.m. Thursday to hold public hearing on the 1972 paving assessment program.

Other action is expected to involve hearing of a special presentation on the city ordinance concerning self-service gasoline stations, and possible city participation in a paving project on 17th St.

Financial Advisor Bob Davis is expected to meet with commissioners to study the legal aspects of refunding of water-sewer bonds, George Louder, city manager said.

Absentee Voting

An absentee voting booth will be set up from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. each day in the Student Union Building on the campus of West Texas State University for student voting, according to County Clerk LeRoy Hutton.

Absentee voting for the May 6th primary election opened Monday and as of Tuesday afternoon 11 persons had voted by personal appearance and six had mailed in ballots.

WTSU Cuts Staff; 11 Given Notice

Eleven members of the teaching faculty at West Texas State University have been notified their employment will be terminated as of May, 1973.

Dr. Ray A. Malzahn, vice president for academic affairs, said the primary reason for the cut-back is the decline in enrollment and the low student-faculty ratio at WTSU.

With a low student-faculty ratio, the university is not able to reward merit in the faculty by providing adequate salaries, Dr. Malzahn reported.

The student faculty ratio at the present time is 18.9 to 1, said Dr. Malzahn. The ratio needs to be 25 to 1 if the university is able to generate enough money for things that need to be done, he said.

Dr. Malzahn noted the terminations were spread across the departments at West Texas. Those receiving termination notices are all non-tenure faculty members with the majority at the instructor level, he said.

All of the faculty members affected have been notified, Dr. Malzahn said.

As to the university's policy of hiring additional faculty members next year Dr. Malzahn said when the enrollment declines

25th Anniversary

In the spring of 1960, O. W. (Bud) Parker enjoyed a rare moment in history.

That was the year John F. Kennedy ran for President and Parker remembers it well.

"I was there," he said, talking of JFK's visit there with Former President Harry S. Truman, who at that time announced his endorsement of the young senator from Massachusetts.

Said Parker, "It was a moment of history that I watched being made. I got to sit in on that event (the press conference Truman called to announce Kennedy's endorsement)."

Parker, owner and operator of Canyon's Western Auto Store since 1947, said he knew Truman, when the former president was in the same Masonic Lodge as he during the early 1930s.

This week, Parker and his wife, Irene, and three store employees are celebrating the 25th anniversary of operation of Western Auto here.

At 62 years of age Parker looks back over his life both in Missouri and in Canyon with satisfaction. Said he: "We've had a good relationship with the people of Canyon over the years, and we're looking forward to many more."

"This is home," he and wife, Irene, agree.

"When we came here," remarked Bud, "we didn't intend to stay, but—"

Irene spoke suddenly in an interview and said, "The people here were so warm and friendly that we knew we'd never find people like these anywhere else."

Parker conducts his business "on a personal basis," he said.

Luci Nugent Lauds Lyndon B. Johnson

"If I have had any measure of success or helped anyone here tonight, I dedicate it to and believe it is because of Lyndon Johnson."

Mrs. Luci Johnson Nugent spoke these words to a crowd of about 600 Monday night at Canyon Junior High School shortly after she had been informed of complications in her father's condition.

Mrs. Nugent said her mother called and told her of her father's illness and she had to make a decision as to stay in Canyon or return home.

"I felt because my father had dedicated his life to trying to improve the welfare and dignity of all mankind, I could best serve by staying here to help you," she stated.

Mrs. Nugent said before her speech she had been informed her father was having difficulty and his heart specialist was flying down.

"I will keep in touch with my family and do what they think is wisest," Mrs. Nugent said. "We haven't been apprised of exactly what the situation is," she continued.

Mrs. Nugent was scheduled to leave at noon Tuesday but indicated she might leave earlier.

Mrs. Nugent spoke to the Canyon group about her problems with visual perception. Her visit was sponsored by the Special Services Department of the Canyon Independent School District.

"I almost didn't make it here tonight," Mrs. Nugent said, "not because of family difficulties, or the baby sitter didn't show or the plane was late—"

"But because I had a visual problem that resulted in a learning disability that almost wasn't discovered and solved," she declared.

Mrs. Nugent said her visual problem was not discovered until she was 16 years old and she said she was belligerent, unhappy and unsuccessful and a D student. "But I was told I was bright," she stated.

"I was lost, lonely, and unhappy. I experienced severe head-

Canyon Student Recognized By Youth Science Congress

"I'm surprised!" said 17 year old Canyon High School senior Tom Oppe.

He was talking about the recognition he's receiving for writing a scientific paper in early March.

This young scientist is the first student in the history of CHS to be selected for special recognition by the Texas-Oklahoma Region of Youth Science Congresses.

As a result of his selection, he was among some 20 high school science enthusiasts who were treated last week to tours of Houston's NASA space command mission rooms and facilities.

The Youth Science Congresses, cosponsored by NASA and the National Science Teachers Association, conducts recognition programs for students in 12 regions over the United States.

The regional congress held meetings Wednesday through last Saturday at Houston.

The son of Dr. and Mrs. Hubert Oppe of 2408 12th Ave., young Tom's achievement with the YSC was the direct result of the paper written at CHS; the paper was entitled, "Gravitation within A Hollow Sphere."

Said his teacher, Mrs. Charles Brasher: "We're extremely proud of him. And the YSC evaluation committee was highly complimentary of him."

Mrs. Brasher said the YSC program is an excellent one. She also said her student's paper showed high originality.

In his piece on gravitation, she explained, he demonstrated literally how "a body inside a

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Former Senator Ralph W. Yarborough was in town Monday.

As usual, Yarborough succeeded in making himself look more foolish than anything else. For openers he attacked the Texas legislative system noting that the US Congress is more capable of spending money wisely than the state legislature.

This coming from the king of boondoggle was far past the point of being ludicrous. After going to the Senate on a fluke in the late 1950s, Yarborough soon built a reputation for his belief that any problem can be solved by pouring enough tax money on it.

What Mr. Yarborough is saying, in effect, is that Washington spending is somehow wiser than local spending in spite of overwhelming evidence to the contrary.

Ralph lashed out at the Nixon administration for resumption of bombing of North Vietnam. Not once in his speech here did Yarborough note that the bombing was resumed only after Hanoi hurled some 10 divisions across the DMZ.

Neither did he express any concern for the safety of Americans remaining in South Vietnam in the face of this newest ruthless attack.

He did not condemn North Vietnam for rocket and artillery attacks on open cities and defenseless civilians.

He condemned the President of the US for striking back in defense of Americans involved in a war begun in earnest in 1965 by passage of the Tonkin Resolution which was supported by Ralph W. Yarborough, then senior senator from Texas.

Yarborough began parroting the McGovern-Kennedy-McCarthy line only when it became obvious that Lyndon Johnson, whose coat tail he had ridden to a second term in the Senate, would not remain in the White House.

Don't sell Yarborough short. He has hard core support and will be tough in the primary. In any event, I think John Tower will win re-election next fall.

Men are more apt to forgive criticism of their actions than are their wives.

I talked Monday to the charming wife of a young politician. She said she finds criticism of her husband hardest to take in politics.

She loves getting out and meeting people. That part of politics is fun, she says. But when she hears her husband criticized she sees red.

Another young wife of a politico was angry just because someone announced for office against her husband.

Happy is the father adored by his children—especially his daughters.

Mrs. Luci Nugent paid poignant tribute to her father, Lyndon Johnson, in a speech here Monday night. It was all the more tender because Mrs. Nugent had just received word that her father had had a relapse after having suffered a heart attack last week.

She gave her father, the former President, credit for any good she may be able to accomplish now or in the future.

The daughters of Barefoot Sanders, candidate for the Democratic nomination to the US Senate, lauded their father here Tuesday evening.

"My father is dedicated," declared Janet, his eldest. "He could make $100,000 a year in private practice. He's a good lawyer but he wants to serve the people."

Younger sister, Martha, echoed Janet's sentiments.

One of the tenderest stories I've ever read was written by a son of Benito Mussolini about II Duce. The son did not view his dad as did the world—a swashbuckling pirate, rapist of Ethiopia and Albania.

His attitude toward his father was reflected in the gentle, simple title of his manuscript: "I Remember Papa."

Abner McCall, president of Baylor University, says inflation has done more than any other thing to damage education.

He also noted in a visit here last week that much of the blame for inflation may be laid at the door of federal spending a great deal of which has been on education.

In 1968 the Democrats laughed at George Wallace. No one in either party is laughing now.

Wallace is a contender for the Democratic nomination and his success in that role must be giving Kennedy, McGovern and Humphrey goose pimples. I wonder if H. M. Baggarly, who has always prided himself in blindly supporting ANY Democratic candidate, would support George if the fiery little Alabama governor gets the nomination.

All are of Canyon. Instructor Jim Walker reported the banner award shown is the first ever received by a Canyon FFA group. Neil was fourth-high individual winner and Jan was fifth-high individual.

Umbarger News Son Is Welcomed

By SUSAN DOLLE

CLARENCE ROBERT "Bob" Howard was given a welcome home by his parents last Wednesday. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Howard, Bob was discharged from the U.S. Army; he had been stationed at Katterbach, Germany, since February of 1971 as a Specialist 4th class in the tanker division. He attended Canyon High School prior to his tour of duty.

ANOTHER YOUNG man who has completed service to his country is Tom Haschke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Haschke. Tom was discharged from Fort Hood on April 1. Both Tom and Bob Howard will serve in the reserves for several months. Tom is living at home and has begun farming.

THREE UMBARGER volleyball teams participated in the sorority tournament held last weekend in Canyon. The men's group and the CYO girl's group were in the finals. The Women's team which suffered two losses is sponsored by Roscoe Richardson of Umbarger Farm Supply. Vincent Ramaeker is their coach while Tom Payne serves the other two teams. The women's group will play Bushland in a practice game tonight.

FYI—FOR YOUR information: Buffalo Lake water was chemically tested last week. The water proved to be free of all coliform; it is as pure as drinking water. The test was the best the lake has had in many years.

THIS SATURDAY and Sunday scores of bird dogs can be seen at the lake as the Hi-Plains German Short Hair Pointer Field Club meets in competition. Spectators would find the show interesting to watch.

SYMPATHY IS extended to the Emma Brandt family on the death of their son-in-law and brother-in-law, Harold S. Birkenfeld of Nazareth.

THE CATHOLIC YOUTH Organization of St. Mary's Church in Umbarger will hold a carnival this Sunday from 1-5 p.m. Proceeds from the afternoon will be given to the Children's Home of Panhandle. Patricia Batenhorst, chairman, states that a door prize will be given away and chances will be sold on a chain lamp. Members of the CYO will man various booths. Aiding that organization will be the Knights of Columbus who will manage bingo and a penny throw. St. Mary's Altar Society will maintain a concession stand and cake walk.

SIXTEEN MEMBERS of the CYO participated in a door-to-door drive for the Texas Cancer Society last Sunday. They collected $175.00.

By CAROL CRAIN

MRS. LUCI NUGENT certainly charmed the people of Canyon with her sincere warmth and friendliness.

The former White House resident spoke about learning disabilities here Tuesday night at Canyon Junior High School.

The reception for LBJ's petite daughter was very well organized by Mrs. Hazel Strickland assisted by the Canyon Classroom Teachers.

Canyon ladies in long spring creations added to the beauty of the evening.

Robert Vaughn To Speak On Effects Of Technology

The onetime "Man From U.N.C.L.E.," Dr. Robert Vaughn, will lecture at West Texas State University Monday at 8 p.m.

His appearance is sponsored by the Student Activities Council and his subject will be The Effect of Technology on Today's Society. The lecture will be in the Activities Center ballroom.

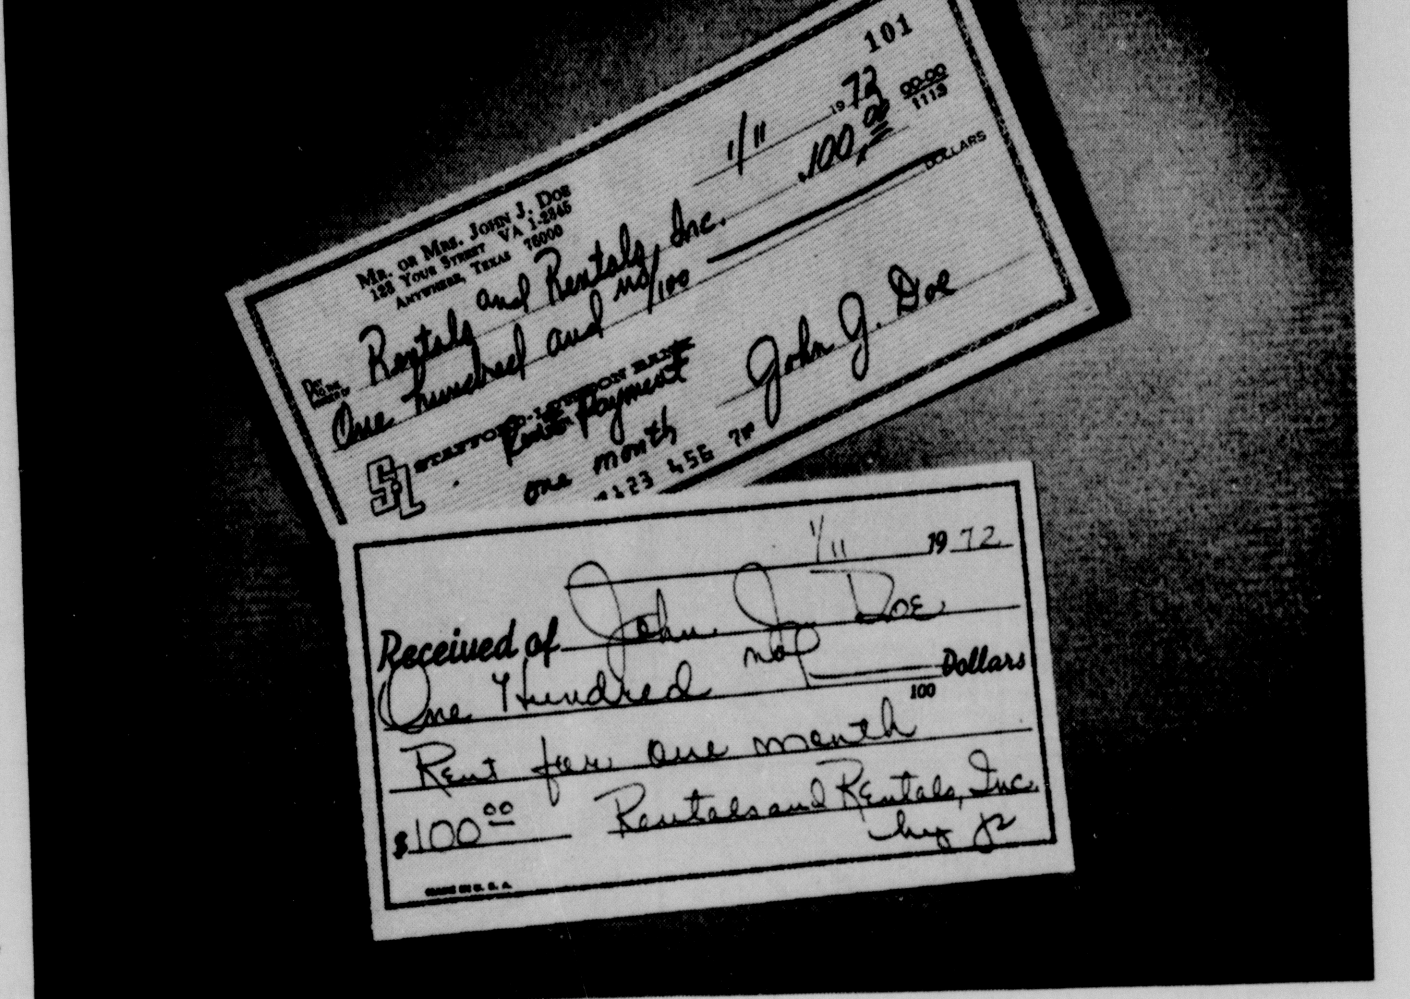

Vaughn, one of the film industry's busiest actors, completed has also kept up his interest in politics. He attended the 1968 Democratic National Convention as an observer and served the BBC as a political commentator during the 1970 British elections.

Vaughn says he does not intend to turn to politics as a career. "I'm an actor by profession—and choice, and I consider it a choice profession," Vaughn says.

After grammar and high school in Minneapolis, Vaughn enrolled in the University of Minnesota's journalism school, aiming for a career in the newspaper world. But his interest in theatre competed with his studies. After receiving a master's degree in drama in 1956

IT GOES WITHOUT PAYING

The money for your family housing goes out, month after month. Don't let it go without paying for a home of your own. Look at the many interesting homes on the market. Or plan yours.

We want to help with financing. A First Federal conventional home loan offers the lowest interest rates available. Plus the flexibility which only experienced, interested local people can provide. How much should you pay down? 5% . . . 10% . . . or more? How long should you take to repay? Our knowledgeable loan officers can help you decide.

Loans up to 30 years are available, and you can pay ahead on your First Federal conventional home loan — any amount, any time — without penalty. Of course, we arrange FHA and VA loans, too.

Come to First Federal for the loan that's as right for you as the home it pays for.

Candidates Visit Mescalero Residents

By TOOTIE BYBEE

HOWDY once again from out here to you where ever you just might happen to be at this time. Well, I hope and I think that Spring is really here and boy this is one ole gal that is ready and happy to see it come around.

THE LIT-TLE editorial I wrote concerning our up and coming County Commissioner race brought a few surprises this past week.

Guess I didn't think anyone read this little corner of news except maybe my friends and neighbors. Well, it works out that a few more than that read it as we have had several more of the candidates out visiting with us and we really gave them the questions and we heard some real good answers and good sound reasoning. Thanks to each of them that took the time to come by and visit with us.

WAS SO very happy to meet Mike Hudson's mother, Mrs. Paul Hudson (Floy) who was up visiting from Melrose, N.M. She stayed a while with Blanche while Mike was in Springfield Illinois on business and her husband was in Washington on business. So, those two had a nice little visit minus the mer folk.

HEARD THAT little ole sweet Denise Malwon had a good bunch of fun this week end with a couple of her ole friends from Amarillo.

SO VERY happy over the contest that Greg Jones and his trio were in. They took second place at Lubbock over the week end. This was a Church sponsored Talent search State wide. Out of about 200 different contestants they took second and to me that is about the best I've heard this week.

SAW A few of you out this week end but was so busy myself doing yard work it was hard to see you. Saw Sherry and Glenna Evans in the back of the pick-up going to see the gliders. Aren't those Gliders just so pretty to watch soar over? Mrs. Alley and Mrs. Buckles out working in their yard. Kathy Rogers out bicycling around the Park. The Holmans taking a leisurely drive through the Park. Roger Whitehead on his motorcycle with Spooky on behind.

SORRY TO HEAR that Joyce Minor has been a little under the weather and hope that she is better. Take good care of little Marcy, Joyce.

GUESS YOU all know by now that little Mike Morgan has been in the hospital since last Thursday and is very ill. Hope this finds him in much better spirits. Get well real quick, Mike.

THE EVANSES had some company over this week end—Leroy's brother Lloyd from Pampa—and they all went scouting Garage Sales. That's so much fun.

THE CAMP FIRE Girls went shopping for their supplies for the Council wide Camp out at Don Harrington the 28th. So guess they all are about ready to pack and go.

THE TOW household was jumping this week end. Ann's sister, Jane, and husband were down from Jal, N.M. The kids went to see the Glen Campbell Show and enjoyed it. Then Sunday, they all went to Dalhart for the motorcycle races. All had a real good time and enjoyed the visit together.

WELL, want to tell you about "featured Family" this week. It is the D. A. Malsons on the end of XIT Trail. They have two children, Denise, 12, and Matt, 9. D. A. works at American Smelting and Refining and Betty is a housewife and mother. D. A.'s hobby is building lovely pieces of furniture and their home shows off much of his fine work. Betty likes to paint and does a lot of sewing. If I were guessing I would say their real hobby was the building, decorating and furnishing of their home, which is just lovely.

They built the whole thing all alone, just the two of them. Betty was born and raised right in good ole Amarillo and D. A. in Leedy, Okla. So, glad they moved into our community. Below are two recipes that are exclusively Betty's, and she shared them with us. The first one is a special one for special occasions. It is a type of potato salad and she said she could never make enough and it was all gone too soon. She uses it for big gatherings and special holidays when there are a bunch of hungry folks around.

Betty's Own Potato Salad

Boil the potatoes and then dice them. To them, add chopped green onions, chopped pimientos, fresh cucumbers. Brown 1 lb. of bacon until good and crisp and crumble into salad. Make a dressing from vinegar and a small amount of bacon drippings and pour over salad.

Betty said she used about ten pounds of potatoes when she had lots of company and proceeded to mix to taste. Sounds so good.

THIS IS the second favorite of her family: Betty's Holiday Salad

1 can of mandarin orange sections
1 can grapefruit sections
1 can minted pineapple chunks

Fold this into sour cream and miniature marshmallows then fold in whipped cream. Add maraschino cherries and pecans if desired. Let it set in refrigerator awhile. The longer it sets the better it gets.

SO, HOPE YOU try these, they both sound so delicious. I'll sign off for this week and tell you if your name wasn't in this column, you didn't call me. In fact no one did this week and I hope you will next week. I promise I won't try to sell you another subscription, if that is why you aren't calling. I just expect everyone will buy one. Really, do give me a call this was a short column this week and I know some of you did something over this lovely week end so call, I miss hearing from you.

ONE LAST WORD: To all my friends and neighbors: PLEASE CALL

Steve Hilton plays Hoffman in the WTSU Opera Workshop production of Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman" which opened Wednesday night in the Branding Iron Theatre. Linda McNeil is Antonia. Performances at 8 p.m. will run through Saturday evening.

WTSU Professor Named To Forensic Academy

Selection of Dr. Charles G. Smith, assistant professor of biology at West Texas State University, to the American Academy of Forensic Sciences was announced today.

The selection was based on his recent research into the so-called fingerprints left by a discharged firearm. He presented a paper on the research at the 24th meeting of the academy in Atlanta, Ga., last month.

The purpose of the organization is to encourage the study, improve the practice, elevate the standards and advance the cause of the forensic sciences.

Only those actively engaged in the practice of scientific application to legal problems or in research related to these problems are eligible to be named to the academy.

Smith, a former chemist and toxicologist with the Texas Department of Public Safety, says the results of his research are useful in the investigation of crimes where firearms are employed.

He was graduated with honors from Abilene Christian College in 1942 and received a Ph. D. from the University of Oklahoma in 1967, the year he joined the West Texas State faculty.

License Required For Child Care

Any person who cares for an unrelated child in their home in Canyon must obtain a license from the Department of Public Welfare, according to Betty Swearingen.

Mrs. Swearingen said there were numerous such facilities in Canyon and only two were licensed.

There are three types of facilities possibly operating in Canyon which are of concern to Mrs. Swearingen.

They are a Day Care Center which is any place conducted without profit, which cares for more than six children during a part of the 24 hours of the day.

A Commercial Day Care Center which is any place conducted for profit which cares for more than six children; and a commercial boarding home which is a private home or place of residence of any person which operates for profit, where six or less children under sixteen years of age are cared for.

Every person, association, institution or corporation, whether operating for profit or without profit, who is conducting a child-care facility must obtain a license to operate, according to the law.

Mrs. Swearingen said no license is required to keep children in the children's own home but it is required when the children are taken to another home.

Mrs. Swearingen said the law is written solely to protect children and it is a simple procedure to obtain a license. "Our only concern is for the welfare of the children," she said.

Mrs. Swearingen said before a license is granted, the department requested the fire inspector to check for fire hazards, the sanitation department of Amarillo to check for health hazards, and the foster parents must have a medical statement from their doctor.

Someone from the department of Public Welfare will also visit in the home. Further requirements include a bed for each child and a fenced-in yard.

Certain advantages are also available to a licensed facility, Mrs. Swearingen said.

The department keeps a list of licensed facilities at all times and refers parents to these facilities when they receive calls for information, she said. The state office in Austin also sends pamphlets on child care which are beneficial, she said.

The license is reviewed annually, she said, unless for some reason the department feels it should be done sooner.

"We need licensed day care centers so we will work with any person in any way we can to help them obtain a license," she said.

paigned to obtain jobs for veterans of the Vietnam war.

He said the Nixon administration "is putting the heat on employers to hire vets to keep them out of school" so the administration would not have to pay for the veteran's schooling.

"If they can get them a job right quick, they don't have to pay them and their earnings all their life will be less," Yarborough charged.

Yarborough said he was author of the Cold War GI Bill and also worked for the passage of the National Defense Education Act, the Work Study Bill, the Opportunity Plan, and the Higher Education Facility Act.

He said Texas was 30th in the nation in education and 31st in per capita income. "The income will never go above that until we raise education," he stated.

When asked about Nixon's family assistance plan, Yarborough said he finds everyone dissatisfied with welfare, the recipients and taxpayers, and he would be willing to vote for the plan and give it a try.

He stated there were more people in the poverty bracket last year than the year before for the first time in eight years.

Too, this man has contributed much of his time and energy to the community.

He organized the Canyon Little League some 17 years ago, right after coming to the city. He watched his son, Craig, take to the baseball diamond, and assisted in the LL program for many years in many ways.

And for the past 24 years he's been active in Scouting. Some 10 years ago, he received the Silver Beaver Award, given for high achievement to Scout leaders who give their time to the young and exhibit outstanding community spirit.

"These are things the President could do tomorrow," Yarborough said.

Yarborough said he did not believe the bombing of North Vietnam to be effective. "They fought the Chinese for 200 years, then the Japanese, then the French and now we are the occupying power," he noted.

"I don't think they will give up until they are independent," he stressed.

Yarborough said he was in favor of reducing the penalty for the use of marijuana from a felony to a misdemeanor but would not change the penalties for the pushers.

He said he would not place labor unions under anti-trust laws. "You can't compare one man to General Motors," he stated.

He said he would not vote for no-fault insurance at the present time because he had found it led to a disregard for traffic laws.

aches and nausea when confronted with visual stress," she said.

Mrs. Nugent began her visual training in September of 1963 two months before the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. She said her teachers expected her grades to go down but instead she began to show improvement and two years later was making B's.

When her visual training began, Mrs. Nugent said she thought the doctors were a "bunch of quacks" and she resented being called out of study hall "to draw circles on chalkboards, put pegs in holes and walk on balance boards."

"But I soon found if I worked hard I could achieve," she noted.

Mrs. Nugent said she wanted to stress the fact that a learning disability can be experienced by anyone, no matter what background.

"My father spent 35 years of his life trying to improve the health, welfare and dignity of all mankind. He was president of the United States, wealthy and had concern for me but that didn't help my problem," she declared.

"You can't have your life changed and dust off your hands and walk away, not when you come from a family as involved and committed as mine—when there is a chance of helping one other person avoid the trauma I experienced."

Mrs. Nugent said in 1965 she began working with Volunteers for Vision whose purpose is to discover the visually disadvantaged child.

Mrs. Nugent said studies had been conducted in detention homes and a large percentage of the children in the homes had learning disabilities.

"They are intelligent enough to go out and be successful in an area not acceptable to society. We hear of the ingenuity of criminal acts which a child probably would never have come up with if their problem had been solved at an early age," she stated.

She stressed in an interview before her speech she is not involved in politics. "I have personal political convictions that run deep because I spent such a large part of my life with it."

"I am deeply concerned and interested but I want to be a person of balance exposed to various demands, needs and challenges in life," she said.

Mrs. Nugent said she expected to become involved in politics again someday, "but not right now."

She said she had sincere respect for some of the goals of Women's liberation but enjoyed being female and felt very liberated.

"Some things about Women's Lib are important although I basically believe moderation in most pursuits fits my temperament," she pointed out.

Boyter said he charged DeBord with a homicide by vehicle complaint based on failure to yield right-of-way.

He said the collision was the first fatality to occur so far this year in the Canyon area.

Randall County Judge Woody Pond said after the hour-long meet: "I think these meetings are real productive. We exchange ideas, and we need to have more of them."

No date, he said has been set for next meeting of city and county commissioners from both counties.

Amarillo Mayor Ray Vahue told The Canyon News that the cities of Amarillo and Canyon—as well as the counties—should cooperate in finding "ways to save money for all of our taxpayers. We need to help each other," he declared.

Stiff mentioned a program of tax-revaluation in his city, hinting that Canyon city fathers might be interested in such a program. "We try to reevaluate on a continuing basis every five years," he said.

Miss Hefley Wins at Tennis

BY PAULINE HEFLEY

A BIG CONGRATULATIONS to that strawberry blond seventh grader, Alexis Hefley who was the only student from the Canyon School system to win in the district tennis match, and what's more she played a young lady who was a sophomore from Tulia. Alex, we're all proud of you, another Christie Everett, eh what?

BY THE WAY, speaking of tennis, y'all be sure to catch the West Texas Tourment coming up this Friday and Saturday. WT will host New Mexico University, Air Force Academy, Oklahoma City University, New Mexico State University and Amarillo College. Should be some real great matches and the action gets under way at 9 a.m. on Friday at the West Texas courts, the Tennis Center, and Memorial Park in Amarillo. Hope to see you there and lots of luck to our good guys.

CONGRATULATIONS TO NOBIE CATES who has been promoted to Petty Officer, 3rd Class in the Navy. Nobie was home recently to visit the folks and friends, but has now gone to San Diego, Calif. for four weeks of survival training, then on to Moffat Field outside of San Francisco where he will be in the Air-Sea Rescue school. We're all proud of you, Nobie, and keep us posted as to your progress.

A HAPPY ANNIVERSARY to Eldon and Melvina Brown.

THE BILL HARP FAMILY and Anita White totted down to College Station last weekend to catch the drill meet that Duane (Harp) and Bruce Crager (from Canyon proper) took part in (poor sentence structure)...In any event, the drill meet took place on the Texas University campus in Austin (as you know, Duane and Bruce are cadets at Texas A & M). The Texas A & M freshman drill team is the national champion for the fifth consecutive year. This was established at recent competition in Washington, D.C., and while there Duane and Bruce visited points of interest and narched in the Cherry Blossom parade.

AND, BACK TO MOMMA and Daddy Bear (no, Harp)—on he way down to see Duane, et al, he Harps motored by Dallas to visit with Ernestine's sister Helen Shelton. Everyone reports a good time.

A MOST INFORMATIVE evening was spent Monday at the Junior High when the guests were pleased to hear Mrs. Luci

Nugent, daughter of the former President Lyndon B. Johnson, expound upon her own involvement with a visual perception problem. She was a very relaxed and warm speaker, and surely all of us involved in the Canyon School system even more convinced that we had such a superior system and certainly we can take pride in and should send a vote of thanks to our governing board in times past that had the vision to lay the ground work in order that we could be among the first to have an L.L.D. program in our system. Mrs. Nugent also conveyed to the audience that she was surrounded by such an atmosphere of achievement in their home that she could do nothing less than her best to maintain the same high level of excellence and/or achievement if not during the early years of her life, very definitely as she started to mature. And, finally, we sincerely hope her father will continue to improve and we are glad she came our way and shared her thoughts with us.

AN ENJOYABLE TIME WAS had by all who attended the District Eight Spring Conference of the PTA held in the American Legion Hall in Nazareth last week. Those tootling over from Gene Howe were Ernestine Harp, Melvina Brown, Doris Nash, Darlene Campbell, Raydell Palmer, Glynn Schmidt and me. It was interesting to hear the speakers expound upon the pros and cons of a four quarter school year as opposed to our present semester structure. Mr. Robert Ashworth, superintendent of the Amarillo Independent School system was there (and was one of the speakers) and I have wondered for years why our own superintendent, Jerry Jacobs, does not attend these functions.

SAY, DID YOU HAPPEN to catch the track meet Saturday last. Wow, you ought to see that Bob Glyser move out on the hurdles. That boy can run. Others that were involved in various events were Matt Hanson and Kelly Forehand. Don't know the results or who else, but it was good to see these. (What did your darling do? Why not call me and we'll share it with our readers?) Y'all phone me your news...376-9853 or 352-2089.

Trio Plays For Club

A composition by a West Texas State University professor and works by Mozart and Schumann are programmed for a recital by the WTSU Piano Trio April 25 at Panhandle.

The performance, scheduled at 8 p.m., is sponsored by the Panhandle Athenium Club and under auspices of the WTSU Faculty Performance Series.

The series, inaugurated last fall, provides at no cost to area art organizations programs in art, music, drama and speech. Funding is through the WTSU Friends of Fine Arts.

Programmed for the recital will be Nocturne, a composition by Dr. George Eason, associate professor of music and pianist with the trio. Also scheduled are Mozart's Trio in B Flat Major, and Schumann's Trio in d minor.

The Trio includes violinist Dr. Donald Todd, associate professor of music, and cellist Brian Walton and Pianist George Eason, both assistant professors of music.

Organized in 1967, the Trio has given concerts in four states and has been featured in performances sponsored by various civic groups and music clubs in the Texas Panhandle.

WASN'T MARCH SUPPOSED to be the windy month of the year? Well, I guess one cannot isolate one month as being the windy month here on the High Plains, but I do know that we contestants in the Canyon News subscription drive have battled some pretty fierce winds the last two weeks trying to make sales. However, the wind has not been nearly as fierce as some of the dogs I have faced! All in all though, the contest is going well, and I have enjoyed meeting many new people.

THERE ARE STILL TWO weeks left in the contest, and I still have plenty of receipts to give out. So please! Hurry and call me today, 622-1439, and I'll rush right over. Nothing is important enough to stand in the way of a sale and that's the truth.

THE WEEKEND PASSED and our work days sort of fizzled out! No one seemed to know what happened to the tar to patch the pavement. Seems as though some of the men got up bright and early Saturday morning and drove around looking for some of the other men, but unable to find them anywhere, drove back home.

SAY LADIES, KATHY Fleming suggested that what the men need is a little incentive on these work days. Four or five women could get together and prepare a luncheon in the park for the men on the days they decide to work. If the men knew we were going to go to the trouble of cooking lunch for them, then more of them would want to work, don't you think? Since it was Kathy's idea, you might give her a call and donate a dish for the next work day. Her number is 622-0601.

BEVERLY AND TAYLOR Norman recently returned from a ten day vacation covering eight states. They began by traveling through East Texas where the bluebonnets, azaleas and dogwood are in bloom. Beverly said it was really a beautiful sight and she wants to return there in fall when the leaves begin changing colors.

FROM EAST TEXAS they continued on through Louisiana to Arkansas. At that point they felt they were too close to their granddaughters not to go and see them, so they traveled 500 more miles to Odon, Indiana, to see their son and grandchildren.

LAST FRIDAY THE Normans returned home after a very enjoyable trip. By the way, Taylor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Norman, vacationed with them and that made the trip even more enjoyable.

SUSAN INMAN, DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Inman celebrated her eleventh birthday April 8, and as Lorraine said, "Susie's birthdays have always been a big event for her grandfather and great uncle." And so it was this year when the Inmans hosted Susie's grandfather, Boston Justice from St. Joe, and her great aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Opal Justice from Gainesville at Susie's birthday party. She received the usual gifts one receives on her eleventh birthday, but the best one of all was having her loved ones there to share in the fun.

DOUG HOOKER WAS released from the hospital last week and seems to be doing fine. He was in for tests to determine the cause of his severe headaches. The tests showed nothing really conclusive, but we are all happy to see Doug back to his old self again and hope his headaches remain few and far between!

THE DOWNTOWN LIONS Club chose Carol Carlile, grand-

daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Carlile, queen for the coming year. The event took place a week ago last Tuesday at the YWCA in Amarillo. Carol competed against 21 other girls, and was so shocked when they called her name as winner that she just sat there, waiting for them to say there had been a mistake.

BUT THERE WAS NO mistake, and Carol received a crown and ten red roses. As queen, she will ride in all parades next year, will help in the Club's Charity work, and will be a guest at each of the Club's luncheons.

CAROL IS THE DAUGHTER of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Carlile, 2504 Oak Drive, Amarillo. She is 17 years old and is a junior at Palo Duro High School, where she is a member of the Student Council. Outside of school activities she is a member of Rainbow Girls. We join with her grandparents in wishing her a very prosperous year as Queen of the Downtown Lions, and extend to her hearty congratulations.

SEEMS AS THOUGH the Carlile family is full of celebrities this week. Tim, son of Marcella and Buster Carlile, took first place in the broad jump last week at Gene Howe Elementary. Tim, a second grader, competed against others his age and grade, and leaped past them all with a jump of 5'2". Just one hop behind was Michelle Walker, who came in second place with her jump of 4'8".

KEEPING IT "ALL" in the family" was Randy Carthel last Saturday night when he raced in the indoor races at the Amarillo Civic Center Coliseum. He had planned to race his new 250 Ossa, but he was unable to get good traction on it, so he proved his racing ability once more on his "underpowered" 125 Penton.

RANDY MADE IT ALL the way to the main event and placed fourth. Just think what that boy could have done on that 250 Ossa!

ANYONE INTERESTED in the banty hen business? If you are, Mrs. Jack Stephens, 622-0540, has two to give away. Seems as though she had to pen them up for some reason, and the hens are not one bit pleased! So Mrs. Stephens would like to give them away. If you're interested, give her a ring.

PALISADES WINDOW stickers are still available if you would like one. They're only $25 each and are very colorful. You can purchase one or ten from Joyce McDonald or Dan Bailey. Support and promote your community. Buy a window sticker!

I AM VERY PLEASED to announce that beginning this week Lake Tanglewood News will be published right along with Palisades News. Mrs. Lorene Walker is the news gatherer and she'd appreciate it if you would call her at 622-0231 if you have any news about Lake Tanglewood residents. She in turn, calls me and I write it up.

I HOPE THAT THIS joint column will encourage some of you who are not presently taking the Canyon News to let me write you out a subscription! I think you'll find that reading about what your neighbors are doing is really fun. Who knows? You may have something in common with someone and not know it until you read about their activities in the paper!

TWO PALISADES FAMILIES have had guests recently. Garland and Mildred Turner entertained Garland's aunt, Blanche Chaney, and her son, Kenneth, over the weekend. They are from Paducah. Nell Moore's mother, Mrs. Oma Taylor is visiting with her this week. Mrs. Taylor is originally from Borger, but she has spent the last year and a half with her son and his wife in Norwalk, Ohio.

MRS. WALKER WORKED on pretty short notice this week, and as a result, the news is also pretty short. But next week will be better. Don't forget to call her and give her your news!

LAKE TANGLEWOOD NEWS

THE LAKE TANGLEWOOD Community Church is really getting its feet on the ground with a regular attendance of about 150. Last Sunday Dr. Robison, the minister, announced that May will be the month for establishing a charter membership roll for the church. One may move his letter from town, or may want to establish an associate membership, one in which he maintains membership in his present church, but also remains active in the Lake Tanglewood non-denominational church.

THE ARTS AND CRAFTS Club will meet Monday, April 24, at 11 a.m. in the clubhouse. Members will then go to Amarillo for lunch at Furr's Cafeteria in Wolfen Village. Following

Fennell To Give Clarinet Recital

Clarinetist David Fennell, West Texas State University graduate student from Plainview, will be presented in recital at 8 p.m. April 26 in the Fine Arts Auditorium on campus.

Programmed for the recital, which is free to the public is Stamitz' Concerto No. 3 for lunch they will be given a tour of the Amarillo College Fine Arts Center. Should be a very interesting and fun outing for all you Arts and Crafts Club members, so be sure you're there to get in on the action!

SOUNDS LIKE FISHING is really good in the lake. Tom Ford caught a 9 1/2 pound channel cat on his trot line last week. No one mentioned if he kept it or threw it back!

TANGLEWOOD RESIDENTS Mr. and Mrs. John Fick returned from a one week trip last Sunday. They both had gone to Dallas where Mr. Fick attended business meetings. Mrs. Fick went on to Shreveport to visit her mother for a while. Glad they are back and had a safe trip!

GRANDPARENTS PROBABLY get much more excited about the motorcycle races than do any other fans, especially if their grandson is running. Donnie Westfall, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Van Doran of Lake Tanglewood, raced Saturday night in Amarillo. Don't know if he placed or not, but he certainly thrilled his grandmother!

THAT'S ALL THE NEWS for now. Don't forget to call Mrs. Lorene Walker and give her your news. She'll appreciate it.

KEEP SMILING and have a good week!

...is a "company secret" you need to know, too!

The figure 99.993% stands for the dependability — the continuity of the electric service we deliver to you. We think you'll agree with us that missing our 100% goal by only seven one-thousandths of a % is a pretty fine record. It's good, but we keep trying to do even better.

Actually, we don't have any "company secrets". We're in a goldfish bowl regulated by the FPC, the FCC, the SEC, the IRS, and state and local regulatory commissions but most of all by our own self-imposed good business practices.

Farmer Is Honored

By LEWARD HOOD

It takes foresight and hard work to win the war against soil erosion—but that war can be won, claims Randall County Farmer Tom Wilhelm of Happy who has proved it.

Wilhelm will be named as the "Come-Back Farmer of the Year" for Randall County during an annual awards banquet to be held May 5 in Clarendon, said Don Dolle, soil conservationist based in Canyon with the Soil Conservation Service.

The "Come-Back Farmer" award is given to outstanding farmers whose soil and water conservation efforts have proved exceptional.

Dolle, whose task it is to assist area farmers and ranchers with conservation programs, pointed out that Wilhelm "has done a terrific job" of conserving soil and water on his land located about one-half of a mile northwest of Happy.

Wilhelm recently completely halted soil erosion on a portion of his section of land by planting 28 acres of grass, to make excellent grazing for his some 300 head of cattle at some point in the future.

Having farmed at the Happy site for the past 12 years, Wilhelm said he'd been "working closely" with soil technicians to accomplish what he has.

Explaining Wilhelm's achievement, Dolle said the star farmer bought his farm back in 1962. Then, he continued, the farm "was run down, gullied up and poisoned with weeds and blown-up fence rows. Tom visualized this land as if it had no gullies and the land was all pretty well leveled out.

"Tom went to work and constructed a grassed waterway which intercepted runoff from adjoining land—this stopped part of the gullies. He constructed two diversions and leveled about 100 acres of land. Most of this work he did himself. In the meantime he tore out at least five miles of old fences and leveled out the blow dirt that had accumulated over the years."

Dolle said those projects were but part of Wilhelm's conservation work. More recently, Wilhelm purchased an adjoining portion of land which was badly eroded and gully-ridden. Wilhelm constructed a second waterway of grass, with Dolle's help.

"Tom has just finished seeding twenty eight acres back to native grasses where severe erosion has taken place for several years. He has done great things in face-lifting this farm."

Dolle said Wilhelm has a "complete farm plan" including sound management practice with sound mechanical structures...and these go hand-in-hand to conserve both the soil and water and pay an economic and social dividend at the same time."

Wilhelm also farms a section of land due east of Happy. There, too, his conservation practice continues. But he has concentrated his efforts on the land northeast of Happy.

Wilhelm not only is proud of his land and his work, but also of his family. He and his wife, Delores, have seven children.

What's so unusual about that? Four of them are twins, born consecutively.

"It doesn't happen very often,"

Wilhelm laughed.

Twins Patrick and Patricia, 8 years of age, were followed by twins Dennis and Denise, 5 years.

The other children are Shannon, 12; Beverley, 11; Roger, 10.

Wilhelm and Dolle both have the same goal: to conserve. As Dolle pointed out: "The farmer is only a temporary steward to the land, and we are trying to save it for use and benefit of our future generations."

Barn Razed In Fire

Fire, swept by strong southwest winds, razed a barn owned by Taylor-Foster Developers just east of the Canyon city limits shortly after noon Tuesday.

Cause of the blaze, reported Joe Rice of the Canyon Volunteer Fire Dept., was undetermined as an investigation continued.

Rice said the building went up in flames before firemen could reach the scene, in the Crow Addition of the city.

The barn was a storage facility, of wood-frame construction, which contained supplies and equipment.

"The barn was totally involved in fire before it was seen," Rice stated. A resident who lives near the structure reported the fire, which sent flames billowing into the sky about 12:25 p.m.

Firemen expended 13,900 gallons of water in their 1½ hour operation at the scene.

The building, Rice said, was an old one, probably built sometime in the 1920's. Monetary damage was not expected to be extensive, he added.

A barn owned by Taylor-Foster Developers said Canyon volunteer firemen, fanned the collapsed in flame and rubble Tuesday after a flames, and the structure was destroyed midday fire struck, sending smoke high into before firemen could act effectively. the air on the east side of Canyon. High winds,

SUNDAY-MONDAY-TUESDAY

CHARLTON HESTON in

"THE OMEGA MAN"

French Pianist Plays at CHS, Carnegie Hall

BY NELL WILLIAMS

Last Sunday afternoon she played in the auditorium of Canyon High School.

Friday evening she will play to a Carnegie Hall audience in New York City.

Paris-educated pianist Andree Juliette Brun has been preparing for her first Carnegie Hall recital with a crowded schedule of personal appearances, radio and television engagements, and autograph session in the New York area.

Her Canyon performance was part of a tour which included Gallup and Artesia, N.M., for the Community Concerts Association. She played the final offering for Canyon's 1971-72 season.

Although she has played 700 concerts in the past 15 years, including 200 in this country and seven tours in South America, she has never appeared in New York, except in one joint recital. Nonetheless, when she arrived in Canyon last Friday night, it was with the heartening knowledge that the orchestra in the 3,000-seat hall was sold out. Balcony tickets will be no problem, because of the students in New York, predicted the artist.

Musicians should do more to help promote their appearances, thinks the practical Frenchwoman. Many artists, she said, believe that to practice conscientiously and play well is enough, but she believes that her own current experiment in promoting good music is worth recommending.

One appearance took place in the mall of a large shopping center in New Jersey, and was, she said, a "wonderful experience." Her manager brought in a "very nice piano" and she played amid the greenery in the mall's central area. "They turned off the fountain, and people were very attentive," she affirmed.

One woman with a little boy stopped to listen, and then the mother wanted to go on and buy shoes, recalled Miss Brun. "Oh, no, Mama, I want to stay and listen. She plays so nicely," the little boy said, according to a friend of the pianist's.

Miss Brun has lived in New York only during the past year. Before moving, she was artist-in-residence at Pepperdine College in Los Angeles. The arrangement meant that she was free to go away on tour and, "when I came back, they liked me even more."

She moved to New York because it is this country's musical center, and "you have to be close to God." "I have a good reputation in the music world and was busy on the West Coast, but people don't know about me." Her New York recital was helped by music lovers for whom she has played since her move. About 25 people bought blocs of tickets which they resold to friends.

"Pursuing a career in music is done by knowing people who appreciate you, and you have to cultivate these contacts. They don't come overnight."

Although she loved the California climate and has kept her home "with a lovely garden," she considers "its gorgeous weather" a drawback for performers. "so many times, people decide they'd just rather go to the beach for the day."

Also, she finds that New York is "very cosmopolitan—very close to the spirit of Europe. Paris is very much a part of me." There, "I go back to a different way of life. I love the pure beauty of the cities—Paris, Rome. It's a refreshing

In this country, said the native of Paris, nature is very beautiful, but not all the cities are "though Washington is, and New York has its own beauty."

She finds the citizens of the country "warm-hearted, broadminded and friendly. . . Sometimes in Europe, they tend to be too conservative. But here, there is a challenge all the time."

Americans are friendly and unselfish, and always willing to help, she has found, though she admits that New York, where so many people are gathered "doesn't represent the character of the United States. It is a hard, tough city."

During her visit home, she expects to play a June recital in Paris. Her mother lives about 20 miles from Paris at Bethemont la Foret, which is on the edge of a forest and near a village where many Impressionists did their painting.

She remembers her years of study in Paris as a very formal hard-working time. Students studied with assistant teachers and played for the heads of the school about once a month, said Miss Brun, who started to study at the age of 4. "We were always in awe of our teacher," she recalled.

The monthly "inspections" by Marguerite Long, who headed Miss Brun's first school, were frightening sessions at which the student played from memory everything she had learned during the last month, and the school's head commented, not to the student, but to the assistant teacher.

The early start in music was Miss Brun's own idea. Her sister, six years older, studied in Miss Long's school, and, one day, at the monthly session, the little girl insisted that she, too, could play. Her mother, horrified, protested, "I assure you she cannot play the piano," but Miss Long agreed to hear the child and then accepted her into the school.

"And," added the artist ruefully, "I have never had that assurance since." Miss Brun believes that the successful concert pianist should start piano lessons by 8 or 10 at the latest. "I don't know if 10 is not a little late. Five or 6 is the ideal age."

Andree Juliette Brun...recitals from Canyon to Carnegie Hall.

Kenneth Laycock To Describe Trip

Dr. Kenneth Laycock will speak on his recent trip to Russia and Europe at 7 p.m. Sunday at First United Methodist Church.

He brought back slides from his travels and will show them. Dr. Laycock, who is vice-president for planning and development at West Texas State University, visited Moscow, Leningrad, Tallinn, Estonia, and Bulgaria, France, and Denmark. His main emphases Sunday night will be on Russia.

Special music will precede his talk.

The daughters of democratic candidate for the U.S. Senate Barefoot Sanders visited in Canyon for a short while Tuesday. Janet, left, and Martha are 18 and 17, respectively and were on a two-day, nine town campaign tour of Canyon.

City Dads Back From New York

The Canyon City Commission returned early in the week from a "successful" trip to New York for a conference with bond-rating officials concerning attainment of a higher credit rating for the city.

George Loudder reported Wednesday that bonding officials of Moody Investment Service, Inc., "were favorably impressed. They made a number of complimentary statements (about Canyon's financial status). And we think they were impressed with the leadership shown in Canyon."

"It was a real good session and our financial advisor (Bob Davis) gave an excellent presentation. We had all of the correct answers for their questions."

Loudder said commissioners met at 10:30 a.m. Monday in New York with John Barrera, representative of Moody's. "We discussed and described improvements made (in the city's economy) in the last few years. And we went into detail about refunding of bonds and gave them a financial picture of our water-utility fund."

Loudder said commissioners came away optimistic about obtaining an A rating to replace the current Baa rating. Loudder said hopes are that the city will get the highest rating possible, the A-1 rating.

Loudder also said that Barrera told commissioners a bond rating committee meeting in New York was scheduled either late Friday of this week or early next week. "We should hear about our rating results after that session," Loudder said.

The city manager also said Barrera indicated to the commission that he would go over the bond rate request with New York analysts.

New Business For Canyon

Canyon has been selected as site for a new Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurant, it was announced this week.

The location will be at the old Red Barn site, across from the West Texas State University campus, reported Kentucky spokesman Gary Hayhurst of Amarillo.

Cost of the project is estimated at $125,000.

The new restaurant will seat some 16 people in 40 booths, Hayhurst said. "Everything is ready to go."

Construction is to start with clearing operations next week, with completion expected by July 15, Hayhurst said. The old barn structure will be razed, with the new restaurant building replacing it.

Six Teams In WTSU Net Tournney

Six teams will compete Friday and Saturday in the West Texas State University Team Tennis Matches.

As all teams do not play each other in the two day meet, there may be more than one winner of the event. Competing teams are West Texas State, New Mexico University, Air Force Academy, Oklahoma City University, and New Mexico State and Amarillo College.

The featured match will be an indoor battle between West Texas and the Air Force Academy at 4:30 p.m. Friday in the Activities Center. The number one and number two singles matches for that event start at 6:30 p.m.

Loud Coyotes Howl, Harass Sleepy Residents

By MARY NEAL HENRY

THE COYOTES GAVE us fits last Thursday night or rather early Friday morning the howled all the way up to the back fence. Bo and Pete, that is our German Shepherd and our Austrian Shepherd, were barking like crazy and giving them fits right back...that is from the edge of the house. They may be cowards, but they aren't stupid. (We lost one German Shepherd to a pack of coyotes.) Sheri and Tom couldn't sleep, so Sheri got up and put Pete in the house. Pete is the smaller dog. He probably a batch of brownies and individually wrapped and scotched taped each brownie for a concession stand the next day at school. Not only that, but these have been placed in a box and set in the chair by the front door to make absolutely sure that they will not be forgotten the next morning on the mad dash to school. Yes! Pete had a feast. Sheri asked, "How did he unwrap all those brownies?" I'm sure it was easy. I might add that I had just shampooed that carpet before the book review last week. So I just went to work. The sweets must have been too sweet or got in his teeth. He also ate a head scarf and a straw hat. If there is a moral, it must be leave barking dogs outside.

FRIDAY MORNING I baked another pie and another batch of brownies and went to school to see how the District 3A Literary Meet was coming out. When I got there, my Sheri was sitting in a chair outside the science door. I thought she'd been naughty. I found out that she was stationed there to keep everyone out and those in the hall quiet. A science test was in progress. Happy did win the Literary Meet with a 155 total points. Hooray! Debra Jackson and Vicki Wilson won second in debate; Kyle Todd won first in boys Oral Reading and Debbie McCarley, first in girls; Walter Stubblefield won first in spelling; Rick Hawthorne won first and Anita Hawthorne won second in the boys and the girls persuasive Speaking; Sandy Ralsback won first in girls prose; Jerry House and Kay Spear each placed second in boys and girls poetry interpretation. The one Act Play won first at Farwell the day before. Jerry House is Best Actor and Sandy Ralsback and Jimi LaRoe made the all star cast and will go on to Regionals this weekend. Brenda Parker won second in ready writing for 5th and 6th grade and Cathy Parker won second in ready writing for Junior High. Dian Johnson won second in Oral Reading for Junior High. Sidney Eads won second in Oral Reading for Elementary boys and Pearl Perez won first for the girls. In Junior High Spelling, Shannon Wilhelm won first and Becky McCarley won second. We are most pleased with our young people. Lonnie Tackitt and Ronnie Jackson won District in Tennis. A Mother told me.

THE 4-H HORSE PROJECT had its first meeting on Friday night at the Happy Rodeo Arena. Wayne Pearson is their leader and "is assisted by Bob McDonald and several more," he said. This group was instructed in basic fundamentals of horsemanship, care of a horse, and instructed to keep records on this project. They practiced riding the barrels and pole bending. Meetings will be held every second and fourth Friday night in Happy and first and third Fridays in Tulia. County Playday will be held June 3; County show, June 12; and District, June 28, in Post, Texas. The state event will be held in Fort Worth again this year. Billie Pearson served kool-aid and cookies to T. T. Henry, Angeline Henry, Ronnie McDonald, David McDonald, Kyle Odom, Kevin Odom, Neal Odom, Nancy Wood, Bob Cole, Colette McCarley, Eddie Joe Pearson, Jay McCarley, Dana Venhaus, Sherrie Starkey, Gui Walt Via, Jim Bob Sims, and Valerie Tipps. Several parents were also present.

ADREN CUNNINGHAM and Tuffy Thompson won the team roping at Claude Friday night. Tuffy and George Jones won third. Noone could seem to remember who won the second and fourth places. Maybe if it is someone who takes this paper we'll find out yet. Saturday at Panhandle, S. E. Mayo had a steer roping. Shi Hurst won first, Adren Cunningham, second and S. E. himself won third. Tom Henry tied the fastest steer of the afternoon in 19 seconds. Charlie Walser and Billy Settle won a matched team roping with Spicer Gripp and Jim Monroe after the steer roping.

THE GRAND WORTHY ADVISOR spent Saturday night in Happy and was a house guest of the Dick Ralsback family. After the coke party Saturday afternoon, fourteen went to Tulia and ate supper. These were our guest of honor, Nancy Blount, Kim Poole, Sandy Hinchey, Kathy Roberts, Sheri Henry, Debra Jackson, Beverly Dowd and Shawn Walters and Linda and Sandy Scott, Joyce and Dick Ralsback. SARA TIERY AND ORA Mary Sims attended the Zeta Tau Alpha State Day in Amarillo Saturday. It began with a coffee at Mrs. Glen Yeager. 'New Day' To Tour Overseas
A New Day, West Texas State University pop-rock choral group, has been selected to tour overseas on behalf of the United States Department of Defense. The Ensemble, conducted by Dr. Hugh Sanders, was chosen for the 30-day Caribbean tour, scheduled May 24-June 22, 1973. The itinerary includes the Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, Guantanamo Bay, the Bahama Island and the West Indies.

The selection was made by the Overseas Touring Committee of the National Music Council, the USO, and the Department of Defense on the basis of performance tapes by the group, Dr. Sanders said.

A New Day was formed last fall for the purpose of reaching a "TV-oriented" public and to give student vocalists the chance to sing and experience the "now" music of the younger generation, Sanders said.

Backed by a trio featuring piano, guitar and drums, A New Day performs such tunes as the Carpenters' "We've Only Just Begun" and "Blood, Sweat and Tears" "You Made Me So Very Happy."

In a letter announcing the group's selection, Joseph Blankenship, chairman of the Overseas Touring Committee, told WTSU President James P. Corrette that "in addition to providing entertainment for our servicemen, the tour offers a real opportunity for your group to be unofficial ambassadors for the United States in the foreign countries visited."

The letter said, "There is also an unusual educational opportunity for the members of your group; a number of colleges and universities have successfully integrated the tour with academic studies and thus provided the students with the background on the life and culture of the countries visited to enrich their foreign travel experience."

Mr. and Mrs. Everette Culp, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Todd, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Copelin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Heil, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Rhoades, Mr. and Mrs. Lena Cabe, Mr. and Mrs. John Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Posey Bonds, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Flowers.

MRS. J. S. COLLINS of Wichita Falls passed away Thursday, April 13, and was buried Saturday, April 15. Mrs. Collins was Mrs. Holly's sister and the last living relative. Mildred and Clayton Devin and Thelma and Fred Axe attended the funeral in Wichita Falls and Mildred said that nine of the eleven cousins were there. It was the first time that that many had been all together.

I REMEMBER having to make posters in Home Economics when I was a freshman. I made a poster on Vitamin C that had bottles of pills etc. on it and some fresh fruit. I was shocked that I made a "D" on the poster and I asked the teacher about it. I had meant you should eat the fresh fruit for the Vitamin C so that you won't have to take the pills, but it didn't come out like that. I can see where a person can easily be misunderstood.

PEOPLE CAN BE THE greatest things in the world. Some have called me to come and write up their subscriptions and some have just sent me their checks. You all sure know how to make a gal feel good! Thanks! See ya!

Sherman Acres Area

Sherman Acres Welcomes Newcomers

By MARY JO GRIFFIN

MR. AND MRS. TED Allen recently drove down to Dallas to take Ted's mother, Mrs. A. B. Fritts to River Road to board a plane for Orlando, Florida. She will be staying with the Allen's daughter and family, the Eddie Harrells for a while.

A GREAT BIG WELCOME to the newcomers to our neighborhood. They are Reed and Lynne Tolles and they come from Odessa. They are both students at WTSY and Reed is very busy with football workouts. We are happy that they chose our area for their home.

I MET TWO COUPLES this

New Hospital Would

Solve Local Problem

Construction of a new facility "is the only thing that will keep Neblett Hospital going," members of the board of directors of the South Randall County Hospital District agreed during a regular session Monday night.

It was Dr. Charles Nester who pointed out the eventual pressing need for a hospital to replace the existing structure, which is not constructed throughout of fireproof materials in accordance with standards set by accreditation authorities who recently inspected Neblett.

Dr. Nester also pointed out that "whatever the board does," it must let the accreditation committee see that the district is doing everything it can to obtain a new building.

The district seeks a loan from Hill-Burton, but board members Monday noted that the Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) has not yet conducted feasibility studies of loans similar to the one SRCHD is making application for.

A delegation of board members recently traveled to Austin to speak with officials of the state health department. But spokesman Mrs. Nolan Henson reported that state health authorities were "at a loss" to give advice as to what loan process should be pursued.

Administrator of Neblett, Ray Grimes pointed out that, "Being a public entity, we come under different sections of the law than do private corporations (such as St. Anthony's Hospital at Amarillo). Grimes said the district has set aside $1.1 million in funds for the new hospital.

A loan from Hill-Burton would be added to that amount for completion of the new facility.

Mrs. Henson said the delegation at Austin "came away about as hazy as we were when we got there" concerning planning for available loans.

"Discouraging," remarked another board member.

Mrs. Henson said, "We found that the state health board still is receiving guidelines from HEW, and our questions were unanswered."

Grimes said current planning includes "lengthy application process," and that accreditation inspectors recently indicated "they would be pleased for us to go ahead and plan, although we can't evaluate the loan effectively at this time."

Finally, Mrs. Henson predicted that "from six weeks to 1 1/2 years" may be required before a necessary loan application is eventually approved.

Grimes added that the district must continue application processes "as fast as possible," and "we should begin detailed planning" for a new hospital building.

"If we begin now, we will be at a construction point much sooner," Grimes concluded.

Only action came when the board approved April expenditures of some $30 for printing expenses and some $18 for voting kits used in the recent election.

Billing to the district for travel expenses incurred by members who traveled to Austin will be included in next month's accounts, board members said.

All members of the board were present for the session, held at the Community Center.

DON'T TAKE YOUR EYES FOR GRANTED

There is much more to good vision than people realize. Better vision can mean greater ability in every aspect of life. Although under normal circumstances your eyes will serve you as long as you live, it is important that you protect them with proper care.

Periodic check-ups are a necessity whether you wear glasses or not. Avoid strain by having the proper glasses (if you need them). Use proper lighting when reading, working or watching TV. Protect your eyes against glare. Rest them when they are tired. Sometimes a soothing eyewash or eye-drops can be helpful. We carry many of them in our pharmacy.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

week who have recently been to the beautiful land of dreams, Hawaii. They are Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Maddux and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Elliott. They also met up with some other people from the Canyon area while there. They are all just bubbling with goodies about Hawaii and I really enjoyed visiting with all of them.

THERE IS A NEW HOUSING development just being started across the expressway and south of Rockwell Road. The Bill Hudsons are the first family to build there, but we expect more to begin building real soon.

SHAWN AND TARA Tankersley were participating recently in the State twirlers meet in Lubbock. We are real pleased with them and the group they are a part of.

WHILE VISITING over in Siesta Plaza last week I saw a most beautiful little bundle of joy. She's a sweet little baby girl born April 6 in High Plains Hospital in Amarillo and her name is Brandy Lanice Stephens. The proud and happy parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Stephens.

BOY SCOUT PACK 131, Den 2 will be having a field outing this Saturday. These boys have been saving popsicle sticks for fun projects. If you have any extra sticks they can surely use them.

OUR SYMPATHY is extended to the R. H. Sims family in the death of Mr. Sims' aunt, Ruby Sims of Amarillo.

THE JACK NANCE family is elated with the newest member of the family, beautiful chestnut stud colt—not yet named. He comes from their pure bred Arabian foundation stock. His mother is Binis Zilanne and the father is Nafis Islam. They have named their ranch the Nance Arangus Ranch (the Arangus comes from Arabian horses and Angus cattle). They are also new members of the Llano Estacado Arabian breeders club. They were at the Westfield Ranch near Canadian recently with the Pete Fischbacher who also are members. They are all looking forward to the endurance ride and other future activities.

GUESTS IN THE John Gaston home over the weekend Oona's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Gonzales of Albuquerque, and her cousin, Mrs. Bert Breck, the baby daughter, Stephanie Vanessa. They toured Palo Duro Canyon and did some shopping in Amarillo. Also Sunday afternoon Oona and the boys, John Thomas and Michael Henry, attended the circus at the Civic Center. They really enjoyed it!

MR. AND MRS. G. D. Vice have recently been visiting (in different directions). Mrs. Vice was in Dimmitt with her daughter, Mrs. Maxine Ballard, and family and in Tulia with her son, Bud George, and family, while Mr. Vice was in Nocona with friends and relatives.

DR. AND MRS. HARLAN Wilson and children were in Keen over the weekend to visit with their son who is attending Southwestern Union College there. This was also the alumni meeting for Dr. Wilson. They attended the performance of the Heritage Singers, which is a singing group of young people originating in Sacramento, California. I understand that the group will be in Amarillo in the not-too-distant future.

THERE IS ANOTHER new Arabian colt filly to the south-west of us. This one belongs to the Alvin Oglesby family. It's a beauty.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON was so warm and beautiful, and as we were out riding bicycles we saw several of our neighbors out enjoying the beauty. There was so much activity, even in the sky. There were parachute jumpers to the west and a graceful glider soaring around so leisurely. It was lots of fun just watching the sky.

MR. AND MRS. TED ALLEN, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Davis attended a dinner and meeting of the Area Rural Letter Carriers Association Saturday night at Wyatt's Cafeteria in Amarillo.

CONGRATULATIONS to THE CANYON NEWS in its new home. It's nice, it's great, it's so very pretty. And speaking of the News, I can never thank you all enough for letting me be a part of this great subscription drive. Especially thanks to Margo Fields and Joan Castleman who put in such long extra hours of patient work. I've visited in so many homes and have really enjoyed being in each one. And I've met some of the greatest people in the world—the Canyon Area People. Thank you.

On Regional Meet

Tracksters Set Sights

Nine Canyon Eagle tracksters qualified at the District 1-AAA meet held here last weekend for the regional meet to be held in Odessa Saturday, but the Eagles could not stave off the powerful Dumas team from winning the meet.

John Hoover, who went to the state meet in the 440 last year for the Eagles, will go to regionals courtesy of a 10.2 second place finish in the 100-yard dash. He failed to place in the quarter this year.

Mentor Phil Ehly said, "John has been hurt all year. Early in the season he pulled a muscle. Just as he was getting that healed he strained some ligaments in his ankle. The doctor told us that the ligaments would probably not heal until he quit running for a good while. John is capable of running a 9.6 when he is well."

Gary Bednorz proved to be the surprise of the meet for the Eagles. The 5-9 high jumper cleared the bar at 6-3 to win that event. Prior to that meet Bednorz's best effort had been 5-11. "He is just a tremendous competitor," said Ehly. "I know there is one jumper in the region that is jumping 6-7, but other than that I don't know anybody else that has gone higher than 6-3," Ehly said.

Weightman Bob Counsellor will represent the Eagles at Andrews in both the discus and the shot put. He was second in the discus with a throw of 149.4, which tops his old mark by four feet and is nine foot farther than his usual mark. "I feel like that mark will be up there with the best of them," said Ehly. Counsellor also placed second in the shot put with a 47-5 heave.

Bill Moore leaped to a second place finish in the broad jump with a 19-5 measurement, while John Upshaw placed second in

"We were very pleased with the tournament," said Canyon Country Club pro Bobby Westfall. "It turned out even better than we had hoped for."

Pro-Sponsor tournaments are not very common, due to the initial expense of obtaining a touring professional golfer. "Moody was a friend of Bobby's (Westfall) and graciously did this for free," a country club spokesman said.

Approximately 300 people attended the Orville Moody golf clinic and exhibition Sunday afternoon, while nearly 125 persons attended the appreciation dinner held Sunday night.

Butch Mitchell of Lubbock toured the course in 68 strokes to place runner-up in the low pro category, but there was a three way tie for third.

Hadlock, Fred Vaughn of Hobbs, N.M. and John Crow of Amarillo all shot 69 to split the third and fourth place money. Lane matched par for a second place in the low amateur. Lloyd Moody of Oklahoma City recorded a one-over par 71 to finish third and James Shelton of Amarillo scored a 72 for a fourth in the amateur division. Gary Fletcher of Canyon and Bill Ross fired a pair of 73's for fifth.

Orville Moody, who headlined the tourney was the winner of the 1969 U.S. Open and World Series of Golf.

Horse Wins Top Honors

James E. (Pete) Hatch, who lives northeast of Canyon showed the grand champion stallion at the 30th annual Cattle-King Horse Show and Rodeo held at Paduca Saturday.

The winning horse was "Mister Coy's Bonanza," sired by a horse named "Coy's Bonanza."

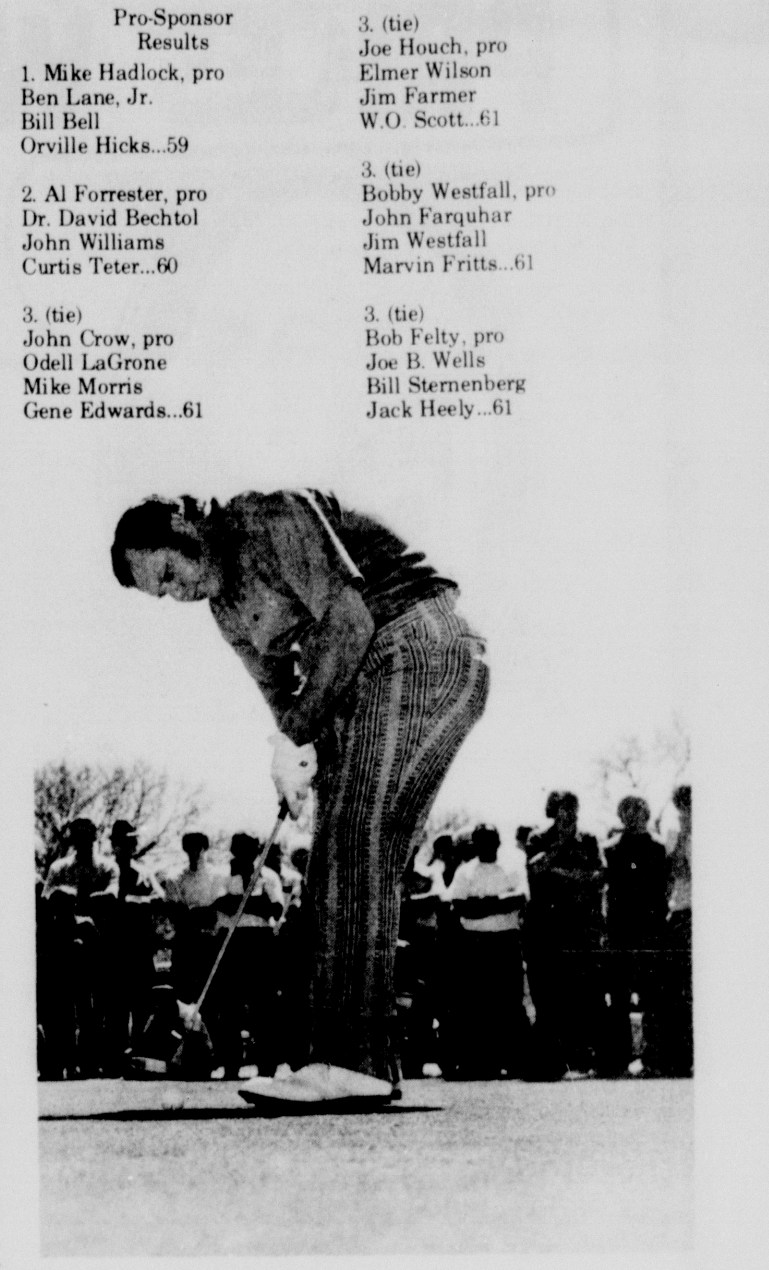

The stallion has taken honors at two other regional horse shows. He stood as reserve grand champ and took first place in his class at a show at Lawton, Okla.; and he won first in class at a Clinton, Okla. show.

"Mister Coy's Bonanza" is a two-year-old. The Hatch family purchased him when he was seven months old.

News Brief

Robert Rogers, Canyon's water-sewer superintendent injured in a recent flash fire and explosion at a well northwest of the city, was reported resting well and in satisfactory condition at Amarillo's High Plains Baptist Hospital.

City Manager George Loudder reported that Rogers should be moved from an isolation ward at the hospital soon, allowing visitors.

Orville Moody, winner of the 1969 U.S. Open and World Series of Golf lines up a put at the Canyon Country Club during an 18-hole exhibition he gave here Sunday.
